

When to use this form

Filling in this form as a trustee

Use this form to tell us that a qualifying interest in possession of assets held in a trust has ended because someone has died.

Do not use this form to tell us:

- if the individual whose interest has ended is still alive (use form IHT100b instead)
- if you're completing an IHT400 as an executor or administrator do not use this form, use Schedule 418 instead
- about the ending of a qualifying interest in possession of assets held in trust if the deceased's estate, including this trust, is an excepted estate (refer to the IHT400 Notes)

Name of deceased

Date of death DD MM YYYY

Inheritance Tax reference number (if known)

If you need help

You'll need to refer to the IHT100b (death) notes when filling in this form.

For more information or help or another copy of this form:

- go to www.gov.uk/inheritance-tax
- phone the Inheritance Tax Helpline: 03000 123 1072
- if calling from outside the UK phone +44 03000 123 1072

Declaration

To the best of my/our knowledge and belief, the information I/we have given and the statements I/We have made in this account, the event form and the schedules attached (together called 'this account') are correct and complete.

I/We understand that I/we may be liable to prosecution if I/we deliberately conceal any information that affects the liability to Inheritance Tax arising on the chargeable event, or if I/we deliberately include information in this account which I/we know to be false.

I/We understand that I/we may have to pay financial penalties if this account is delivered late or contains false information, or if I/we fail to remedy anything in this account which is incorrect in any material respect within a reasonable time of it coming to my/our notice.

I/We understand that I/we may have to pay interest on any unpaid tax according to the law where:

- I/We have elected to pay tax by instalments
- additional tax becomes payable for any reason

Each person liable to pay the tax must sign below to indicate they have read and agree the statements above. Or if the form is not physically signed then you must attach the declaration set out in the IHT100b (death) notes.
