Letter regarding UK driving licences

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to confirm that driving licences issued in the United Kingdom are issued under the conditions and in the format set out in European Directive 91/439/EEC.

Full driving licences are issued on passing a driving test to the standard required by Directive 91/439/EEC and carried out by a driving examiner.

There is a website that provides information on all aspects of the European Union http://europa.eu/eu-life/index_en.htm

A copy of the Directive is available to view on this site.
