Claimant: Miss G Keenan

Respondent: Rhodes Preschool CIC

JUDGMENT

Employment Tribunals Rules of Procedure 2013 – Rule 21

1. The respondent has failed to present a valid response on time. The Employment Judge has decided that a determination can properly be made on the claim in accordance with Rule 21 of the Rules of Procedure.
2. The claimant was dismissed by reason of redundancy and is entitled to a redundancy payment of £1,682.80 (11 years' service. Gross weekly pay = £168.28. Aged under 22 @ 0.5 week's pay for each full year worked = 2 years x £84.14 = £168.28. Aged between 22 and 41 years @ 1 weeks' pay for each full year worked = 9 years x £168.28 = £1,514.52).
3. The respondent has failed to pay the claimant's accrued but untaken holiday entitlement and is ordered to pay the claimant the sum of £842.46 calculated as follows: annual holiday entitlement = 5.6 weeks. Claimant works 15.75 hours per week x 5.6 = 88.2 hours, which accrued at the rate of 1/12 per calendar month. The claimant's employment terminated in the 11th month. 88.2 hours divided by 12 months = 7.35 hours per month x 11 months = 80.85 hours x £10.42 per hour = £842.46.
4. Consequently, the respondent must pay the claimant the sum of £2,525.26 in total.
5. The claimant will be responsible for paying tax liabilities arising out of the gross award if they receive the gross figure and tax is not deducted at source.
6. Regarding the additional claim for holiday pay raised with Employment Judge Eeley at the hearing on 24 April 2024 for the 1.6 weeks per year that the claimant was allegedly not paid, the Tribunal has received the claimant's email dated 20/5/2024 and the accompanying documents but is unclear how the figures have been reached. If the claimant wishes to pursue this element of her claim, she should produce her calculation of how the figures have been reached within 14 days of this judgment.

NOTICE

THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS (INTEREST) ORDER 1990 ARTICLE 12

Case number: 2410959/2023

Name of case: Miss G Keenan v Rhodes Preschool CIC

Interest is payable when an Employment Tribunal makes an award or determination requiring one party to proceedings to pay a sum of money to another party, apart from sums representing costs or expenses.

No interest is payable if the sum is paid in full within 14 days after the date the Tribunal sent the written record of the decision to the parties. The date the Tribunal sent the written record of the decision to the parties is called the relevant decision day.

Interest starts to accrue from the day immediately after the relevant decision day. That is called the calculation day.

The rate of interest payable is the rate specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 on the relevant decision day. This is known as the stipulated rate of interest.

The Secretary of the Tribunal is required to give you notice of the relevant decision day, the calculation day, and the stipulated rate of interest in your case. They are as follows:

the relevant decision day in this case is: 27 June 2024

the calculation day in this case is: 28 June 2024

the stipulated rate of interest is: 8% per annum.

GUIDANCE NOTE

1. There is more information about Tribunal judgments here, which you should read with this guidance note:
www.gov.uk/government/publications/employment-tribunal-hearings-judgment-guide-t426

If you do not have access to the internet, you can ask for a paper copy by telephoning the Tribunal office dealing with the claim.

2. The payment of interest on Employment Tribunal awards is governed by The Employment Tribunals (Interest) Order 1990. Interest is payable on Employment Tribunal awards if they remain wholly or partly unpaid more than 14 days after the relevant decision day. Sums in the award that represent costs or expenses are excluded. Interest starts to accrue from the day immediately after the relevant decision day, which is called the calculation day.
3. The date of the relevant decision day in your case is set out in the Notice. If the judgment is paid in full by that date, no interest will be payable. If the judgment is not paid in full by that date, interest will start to accrue from the next day.
4. Requesting written reasons after you have received a written judgment does not change the date of the relevant decision day.
5. Interest will be calculated as simple interest accruing from day to day on any part of the sum of money awarded by the Tribunal that remains unpaid.
6. If the person paying the Tribunal award is required to pay part of it to a public authority by way of tax or National Insurance, no interest is payable on that part.
7. If the Secretary of State has claimed any part of the sum awarded by the Tribunal in a recoupment notice, no interest is payable on that part.
8. If the sum awarded is varied, either because the Tribunal reconsiders its own judgment, or following an appeal to the Employment Appeal Tribunal or a higher court, interest will still be payable from the calculation day but it will be payable on the new sum not the sum originally awarded.
9. The online information explains how Employment Tribunal awards are enforced. The interest element of an award is enforced in the same way.
