

When to use this form

Fill in this form if the people who have inherited the deceased's household and personal goods:

- wish to donate some or all of them to a qualifying charity wish to deduct charity exemption against the value of the estate

If you fill in this form you will not have to submit a formal Instrument of Variation (IOV) to deduct charity exemption for any household and personal goods given to charity by the beneficiaries.

You should not fill in this form to deduct charity exemption for any household and personal goods that pass to charity under the deceased's will.

Additional requirements

If the deceased died on or after 6 April 2012, you must send proof with this form that the charity has received the goods being passed to it.

All the people who have inherited the household and personal goods must sign this form.

Qualifying charities

From 1 April 2023 a qualifying charity is one that meets the following conditions:

- if it is established for charitable purposes
it is a UK registered charity from 1 April onwards for IHT purposes its managers are fit and proper persons to be managers of the charity
