Dear

Regarding your request where you asked “if we require a broker registration to broker medicines to non-UK & non-EEA countries”, further information on registering a broker can be found via the below link:

<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/medicines-register-as-a-broker>

Any UK-based company that independently negotiates the selling or buying of UK authorised medicinal products on the behalf of another company must be registered as a broker. Any actions as a broker in a non-UK or non-EEA country must be done in compliance with that country’s regulations.
