

For the accounting period [][] [][] [][][][] to [][] [][] [][][][] DD MM YYYY

(These dates must not be altered without the agreement of HM Revenue and Customs)

[Empty box for additional information]

Period MM YYYY

[][] [][][][]

Date to reach the Excise Processing Team DD MM YYYY

[][] [][] [][][][]

Lottery Duty reference number

[Empty box for reference number]

You must ensure that the completed form is received by the Excise Processing Team no later than the 13th day following the end of the relevant accounting period ('due date'). The address to send the form is: HMRC, Excise Processing Team, BX9 1GL, UK. Any duty payable must be credited to the following bank account to ensure that cleared funds are available for use by HM Revenue and Customs no later than the due date: Sort Code: 08-32-00. Account number: 12000911. Account name: HMRC GACA.

Table with 3 columns: Description, £, p. Rows include: 1. Value of the consideration given for tickets or chances in the online game in this accounting period, 2. Value of the instant tickets or chances in packs becoming settled in this accounting period, 3. Total of 1 and 2, 4. Amount of Lottery Duty due in this accounting period, 5. Deduct the amount of any over-declaration made on previous returns, 6. Deduct the amount of any refund claimed, 7. Add any under-declaration made on previous returns, 8. Net amount of lottery duty and payable.

Declaration by signatory

I declare that the information given above is true and complete.

Name in full use capital letters

[Empty box for name]

Signature

(for example promoter, partner or director)

[Empty box for signature]

Date DD MM YYYY

[][] [][] [][][][]

Payment of the duty is being made by *BACS/CHAPS (delete as appropriate).

You can avoid penalties by taking care that we get your accurately completed return and full payment by the due date. If you give incomplete or inaccurate information, we may charge a financial penalty or even prosecute you. You have the right to appeal if we impose such a penalty.

For HMRC use
Amount received £ p
Remittance code [1] [3] [5] [7]
Initials
Post Opening Serial Number