To whom it may concern

Having seen the Planning Application (reference above) in the Herts Advertiser, I would like to give my support for the planning permission to be approved.

As a local resident, the proposed application is far more in keeping to the area than the current dwelling.

Making the plot into a very attractive, high end property will only add value to the area and will most certainly enhance the road.

I really hope this application is given the go ahead. It does not make any sense to keep it as a split property.

Yours sincerely

Ms S C Haworth
