

Please note:

The Committee advises the Prime Minister on arrangements for upholding ethical standards across public life. The Committee is not a regulator and has no remit to investigate individual cases so is not able to advise or assist on such complaints.

How to complain about the service you have received from the Committee on Standards in Public Life.

If you are not satisfied with how you have been dealt with by us, please make your complaint in writing and either:

email it to: public@public-standards.gov.uk

Or send it by post to:

Committee on Standards in Public Life
Room G07
1 Horse Guards Road
London
SW1A 2HQ

We will acknowledge receipt of your complaint within 5 working days and we will send you a full reply within 20 working days of receipt. If we cannot send a full reply within that timescale, we will tell you the reason why and let you know when we will be able to reply in full. Your complaint will be dealt with in line with the Cabinet Office Complaints Procedure.
