

Notice of objection in relation to a Restocking Notice

WHEREAS the Forestry Commissioners have served on me a restocking notice (number		dated)
requiring the restocking of land with trees in accordance with the conditions of that notice.

NOW therefore I		[full name]
of		[address]
give notice that I object to ⁻¹		[Tick (a) and/or (b) as required]
<input type="checkbox"/>	(a) that notice;
<input type="checkbox"/>	(b) the conditions numbered contained in that notice on the following grounds-

¹ An objection may be made either to the Restocking Notice itself, or to conditions in the notice, or to both the notice, and in the event of the notice being upheld, conditions on the notice. If the objection relates to one aspect only tick (a) or (b) as appropriate. If an objection is made to both the notice and to conditions in the notice the grounds of each objection should be stated separately.

² The original Form 6A as laid out in Forestry (Felling of Trees) (Amendment) Regulations 1987 (S.I. 1987 No 632) states the form should be sent to The Minister of Agriculture Fisheries and Food. However, the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food (Dissolution) Order 2002 (SI 2002 No 794) dissolved the Ministry and transferred the functions of the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food to the Secretary of State, Environment Food and Rural Affairs.
