We lived in Langton Road from 1965 until 1991 when we moved to a nearby road in St Annes. Langton Road was always a traditional, residential family-orientated road and we feel this proposed development is extensive and will change the character of the area. It is preposterous for a developer to try to impose these plans on a settled neighbourhood, in particular, the proposal to house residents in the garage defies belief. Parking is already difficult in the road, we struggle to park when visiting family and friends, as well as our local chemist at the other end of the road. If this case does proceed to a hearing, we would be happy to attend to present our objection.

Yours sincerely

Jim and Angela Leahy
