

Protect children's privacy when using AI.

Artificial Intelligence tools may share personal data with third parties - safeguard your students' and your own personal information.

Department
for Education

Search "data protection in schools" on gov.uk for more data protection guidance and information.

