Accounting policies

(see notes 84 and 85)

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention. With the continued support of members, it is appropriate to prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis which assumes the Union will continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. The officers of the Union have considered their obligations to prepare these financial statements on the appropriate basis, having regard to the Union's financial position at the year-end and with reference to budgets and forecasts for the 2022 financial year. The Executive is confident that the accounts should be prepared as a going concern. Solidarity union continues to enjoy support from members drawing from all faith and ethnic communities within the UK.

Subscriptions and Other Income
 Subscriptions are accounted for under the accruals concept, except that arrear of subscriptions, which are not considered to be material in amount, are not included until received.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF THE SOLIDARITY UNION FOR YEAR ENDING 2023

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Solidarity for the year ended 31 December 2023 and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the group and Union's affairs as at 31 December 2023 and of its transactions for the year then ended; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Trade Union and Labour Relations Act 1992.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the union in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the ISAs (UK) require us to report to you where:

- the officers' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is not appropriate; or
- the officers have not disclosed in the financial statements any identified material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the union's ability to continue to adopt

~~the going concern basis of accounting for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for~~
