

Solid Trade Union Statement to members for period ended 31st December
2023 as required by section 32a of Trade Union and Labour Relations
(Consolidation) Act 1992

Income and Expenditure

The total income of the union for the period was £1329. This amount included payments of £205 in respect of membership income of the union. The union's total expenditure for the period was £1365. There is sufficient money to ensure we are in credit and have funds for future contingencies when the needs arise.

Political Fund

In respect of the union's political fund, its total income was £0 and total expenditure was £0.

General Secretary Salary and Other benefits

The General Secretary was not paid any amount in respect of salary or benefits.

Irregularity statement

A member who is concerned that some irregularity may be occurring, or have occurred, in the conduct of the financial affairs of the union may take steps with a view to investigating further, obtaining clarification and, if necessary, securing regularisation of that conduct.

The member may raise any such concern with such one or more of the following as it seems appropriate to raise it with: the officials of the union, the trustees of the property of the union, the auditor or auditors of the union, the Certification Officer (who is an independent officer appointed by the Secretary of State) and the police.

Where a member believes that the financial affairs of the union have been or are being conducted in breach of the law or in breach of the rules of the union and contemplates bringing civil proceedings against the union or responsible officials or trustees, he should consider obtaining independent legal advice.
