

Form T

Application for registration as a British citizen by a person who:

- was born in the UK on or after 1 January 1983
- has lived in the UK up to the age of 10

To be used by people in the Channel Islands, Isle of Man and British overseas territories, and by people who live elsewhere and want to apply by post.

The Home Office will use the personal information you provide to consider your application. We may also share your information with other public and private sector organisations in the UK and overseas. For more detail please see the Privacy Notice for the Border, Immigration and Citizenship system at www.gov.uk/government/publications/personal-information-use-in-borders-immigration-and-citizenship. This also sets out your rights under the Data Protection Act 2018 and explains how you can access your personal information and complain if you have concerns about how we are using it.

Important: Before completing this form, you should read the accompanying Guide T (www.gov. uk/government/publications/form-t-guidance). If there is not enough space for your answers, use a separate sheet of paper to provide additional information.

If you want help to complete your application form, you may wish to contact a solicitor or agent registered with the Office of Immigration Services Commissioner (see Guide T which accompanies this form for details).

We recommend that you keep a copy of this application.

Some of the information you provide on this form will be stored on a computer which is registered under the Data Protection Act.

Ensure that you read Guide T (www.gov.uk/government/publications/form-t-guidance) which accompanies this form. You should ensure that you understand the criteria for registration before submitting your application. Full fees cannot be returned for applicants that fail or withdraw their application.

Write in BLOCK CAPITALS using black pen. Enter all dates as dd-mm-yyyy.

Each person applying for registration must complete a separate application form.

Section 3: Good character requirement

go to question 3.2

Yes

In this section you need to give information which will help the Home Secretary to decide whether they can be satisfied that you are of good character. Checks will be made with the police and possibly other government departments, the security service and other agencies.

Personal history (criminal convictions, civil judgments, civil penalties and war crimes)

This section asks about any criminal convictions, any civil judgments or civil penalties made against you and details of any involvement you may have had in war crimes, genocide, crimes against humanity or terrorism. If you fail to answer all of these questions as fully and accurately as possible, your application may be refused.

It is an offence under Section 46(1) of the British Nationality Act 1981 to make a statement or representation which is known to be false or is not believed to be true. Information given will be checked with other agencies.

Have you been convicted of any criminal offence in the UK or any other country?

3.2 Give details below for each criminal conviction, starting with the most recent one. If you have received more than 2 convictions photocopy this page and enclose it with this form.

No

go to question 3.3

We will carry out criminal record checks on all applicants. You must give details of all criminal convictions. This includes road traffic offences (including all drink driving offences).
Fixed penalty notices (such as speeding or parking tickets) do not form part of a person's criminal record and will generally not be considered in the caseworker's assessment of character unless the person either:
 failed to pay and there were criminal proceedings as a result received 3 or more fixed penalty notices at any level in the past 3 years received 2 or more fixed penalty notices, at least one of which was at the upper levels (fine of £200 or more) However you must give details of any fixed penalty notices received.
