Dear [REDACTED]

RE: Request for Information – RFI4698

Thank you for your request for information which was processed in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

You requested the following information:

under the FOI Act could you let me have details of the extension to the front gardens of 86-103 Fountains Close.

Response

We can confirm that Homes England does not hold the information detailed in your request. This is because there is no legal or business reason for Homes England to do so.

To conclude that the information is not held, we have searched with our Records team who would have the requested information if held.

The FOIA does not oblige a public authority to create information to answer a request if the requested information is not held. The duty under section 1(1) is only to provide the recorded information held.

The full text of section 1 in the legislation can be found here:

Advice and Assistance

We have a duty to provide advice and assistance in accordance with Section 16 of the FOIA. To comply with this duty we are able to confirm that we do not hold any files in relation to the extension to the front gardens of 86-103 Fountains Close. We can advise that even if there was documentation about the extension, we do not hold any record of having ever received them from Washington Development Corporation.

We can also confirm that we do not hold any deeds or other records in relation to the land sale/purchase from Elam Construction.

Right to Appeal

If you are not happy with the information that has been provided or the way in which your request has been handled, you may request an internal review. You can request an internal review by writing to Homes England via the details below, quoting the reference number at the top of this letter.
