2. FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

FAQ no.
1	Q. Do I need to send you a copy of my green residence certificate and my certificado de empadronamiento? A. You only need to send us a copy of your certificado de empadronamiento if you no longer reside at the address mentioned in your green residence certificate/TIE photo card.
2	Q. If my marriage certificate has not been issued and/or legalised within the last 3 months will it be accepted by the Spanish authorities? A. The Spanish Foreigners' Office (Extranjería) will usually require your marriage certificate to have been both issued and legalised in the last 3 months prior to the date of your appointment to submit your residence card application. It is a Spanish requirement therefore you need to check with your local Spanish Foreigners' Office as to whether they will accept a marriage certificate issued more than 3 months and/or legalised more than 3 months beforehand and let us know. You must do this before applying for your consular certificate. We will then send you a disclaimer to sign and send back to us regarding the non refund of consular fees when we receive your application.
3	Q. Where can I get a translation into Spanish of my marriage certificate? A. We understand the Foreigners Office will accept a translation into Spanish if it has been done by a sworn translator - see the list of translators and interpreters, or, the consulate or embassy in Spain of the country where the marriage took place.
4	Q. Where do I get my marriage certificate legalised? A. If the country where you married is part of the Hague Convention, the legalisation office in that country will place a stamp or vignette called "The Hague Apostille" (Apostilla de la Haya) on the back of the document. Check the list of countries that are part of the Hague Convention If not, you'll need to use the diplomatic legalisation process and you need to contact the authorities in the country you got married or the embassy or consulate of the country where you got married in Spain.
