DECLARATION OF SPECIAL MEASURES: PESTE DES PETITS RUMINANTS
IMPORTS OF OVINE AND CAPRINE PRODUCTS FROM EEA STATES, THE FAROE ISLANDS, GREENLAND AND SWITZERLAND
THE TRADE IN ANIMALS AND RELATED PRODUCTS (SCOTLAND) REGULATIONS
2012

The Scottish Ministers have reasonable grounds for suspecting the existence of peste des petits ruminants in Bulgaria, Greece and Romania, such that animals or products originating from territories subject to special transitional import arrangements are liable to pose risk to animal health.

Under regulation 25(1) of the Trade in Animals and Related Products (Scotland) Regulations 2012⁽¹⁾, Scottish Ministers declare the following necessary special measures in order to contain the risk to animal health:

Imposition of conditions on ovine and caprine products

1. – (1) The exemption from official controls at border control posts for entry into Scotland of ovine and caprine products originating in a territory subject to special transitional import arrangements as:

- (a) part of passengers' personal luggage and intended for personal consumption or use, or
- (b) part of a small consignment sent to natural persons, which are not intended to be placed on the market, is suspended, unless the ovine or caprine products are of a category and meet the conditions specified in paragraph 2.

(2) Accordingly, such products may only enter Scotland as products subject to official controls at border control posts in accordance with Part 3 of the Trade in Animals and Related Products (Scotland) Regulations 2012 (subject to the derogations and modifications set out in schedule 5 of those Regulations and as if paragraph 1 of schedule 3 of those Regulations did not apply)⁽²⁾, including being accompanied by the appropriate health certificate or relevant commercial documents required by those Regulations for the products concerned, and subject to any other requirements that apply in relation to the import of ovine or caprine products.

Imports of ovine and caprine products remaining exempt from official controls

2. Ovine and caprine products remain exempt from official controls at border control posts as part of passengers' personal luggage where intended for personal consumption or use, or as part of a small consignment sent to natural persons which are not intended to be placed on the market, provided that they belong to at least one of the following categories:
