Background

1. As many ESF partners and providers are aware the retention of documents rules for structural funds are stringent and require providers to keep documents for a considerable amount of time.
2. Partners and providers will be pleased to know that the final destruction date for documentation relating to the English ESF programme covering the 1994-1999 programming period has now been reached.

Action

3. All documentation (hard copy and electronic) relating to any ESF programmes delivered in 1994 to 1999 can be removed from storage and destroyed.
4. For complete clarity this does not apply to ESF delivered in the 2000-2006 period. If you are unsure please contact the author of this note.
