ATTORNEY GENERAL'S LONDON PANELS OF CIVIL COUNSEL COMPETITION 2025

Information and Networking event 102 Petty France, Monday 3 February, 5pm to 6.30pm

The Government Legal Department (GLD) will be holding an event for those who are interested in applying to the Attorney General's London A, B and C Panels of Civil Counsel. The competition will open on Monday 27 January and will close at noon on Wednesday 5 March.

The Law Officers maintain three London Panels of Junior Counsel (A, B and C) to undertake civil work for all government departments. For further information see GOV.UK.

The aim of this event is to encourage those who are eligible to apply to do so and to go through the application process. We will be joined by several speakers, including a Law Officer, a current Panel member, who will speak about their own experience of panel work, and senior government lawyers from GLD and HMRC who will talk about the value of panel counsel work and the opportunities available.

There will be an opportunity to network, ask questions and discuss panel opportunities with our instructing lawyers.
