6. About the First-tier Tribunal which decided your case

6.1 Where was your hearing held?

Scotland

Northern Ireland

England or Wales

Remote hearing

Paper hearing or case

6.2 On what date did the tribunal send the decision to you?

Day

Month

Year

6.3 Tribunal reference number

Note 6.2: you will find the date on the covering letter that came with the decision

Note 6.3: you will find this on all correspondence from the tribunal

7. Reason for any delay

You should have applied to the First-tier Tribunal for permission to appeal within 56 days (Tax and Charity) of the full written statement of the tribunal's reasons for its decision being issued.

7.1 Did the First-tier Tribunal refuse to admit your application because you were late?

Yes

No

Your application for permission to appeal or your notice of appeal to the Upper Tribunal must be made so that it is received no later than one month after the date the First-tier Tribunal sent you notice of the refusal or grant of permission to appeal or the refusal to admit your application.

7.2 Has more than 1 month passed since the First-tier Tribunal sent you notice of the grant or refusal of permission to appeal or notice that your application has not been admitted?

Yes

No

If the answer to either of the above questions (or both) is 'Yes' please apply for an extension of time by giving your reasons for the delay in the box below.

Note 7: You must show a good reason for the Upper Tribunal to accept your application or appeal. If the First-tier Tribunal did not admit your application for permission to appeal because it was late or because you did not have a written statement of reasons it will only be admitted if the Upper Tribunal considers that it is in the interests of justice to do so. You must in all cases explain why the application was, or is being, made late.

Your reasons should explain why you consider it in the interests of justice for the application to be admitted. That explanation should in all cases include the reasons why the application missed (as applicable) either the 56 day deadline to the First-tier Tribunal and/or the one month deadline to the Upper Tribunal.

8. Reason for appealing

8.1 Please set out below what error of law you consider the tribunal has made. If you are printing out this form to complete and you need more space, please continue on a separate piece of paper, or enclose a separate document with your reasons.

Examples of mistakes of law are:

- The tribunal did not apply the correct law or wrongly interpreted the law.
- The tribunal made a procedural error.
- The tribunal had no evidence, or not enough evidence to support its decision.
- The tribunal did not give adequate reasons (in the written statement of its reasons).

Note: This is not an exhaustive list and you could believe the decision is wrong for some other reason. You should explain in as much detail as possible why the decision in your particular case is wrong in law.

Please now re-read the form and check that you have entered all the relevant information.

Once you are satisfied, please tick this box
