

Form RS1

Application for registration as a British citizen by a person who has made a declaration of renunciation

To be used by people in the Channel Islands, Isle of Man and British overseas territories, and by people who live elsewhere and want to apply by post.

The Home Office will use the personal information you provide to consider your application. We may also share your information with other public and private sector organisations in the UK and overseas. For more detail please see the Privacy Notice for the Border, Immigration and Citizenship system at www.gov.uk/government/publications/personal-information-use-in-borders-immigration-and-citizenship. This also sets out your rights under the Data Protection Act 2018 and explains how you can access your personal information and complain if you have concerns about how we are using it.

Application for registration as a British citizen by a person who has made a declaration of renunciation

Before completing this form, you should read the accompanying Guide RS1 (www.gov.uk/government/publications/form-rs1-guidance). Fill in the parts of the form which apply to your application (see section 3 in Guide RS1) and cross out all other parts. If there is not enough space for your answer, use a separate sheet of paper. Write clearly in block capitals using black ink.

Section 2 Good character requirement

In this section you need to give information which will help the Home Secretary to decide whether they can be satisfied that you are of good character. Checks will be made with the police and possibly other government departments, the Security Service and other agencies.

Personal history (criminal convictions, war crimes and other penalties)

This section asks about any criminal convictions, any civil judgments or civil penalties made against you and details of any involvement you may have had in war crimes, genocide, crimes against humanity or terrorism. If you fail to answer all of these questions as fully and accurately as possible, your application may be refused.

It is an offence under section 46(1) of the British Nationality Act 1981 to make a statement or representation which is known to be false or is not believed to be true. Information given will be checked with other agencies.
