

Criminal Procedure Rules and Practice Directions

Index & Forms

March 2025

Use of the Index

This is a combined index to the Criminal Procedure Rules and the Criminal Practice Directions.

The electronic version of this index contains links to the specific rule (these link directly to the legislation). Where an entry is covered by more than one rule, then a set of rules covering the relevant ones will be displayed – the rules displayed in these cases are governed by the way that rules are grouped by the legislation.

The Criminal Practice Directions can be found here. References to the Practice Directions in this index have a grey highlight.

There are also links to each FORM – the list of forms is at the end of the index and can be accessed directly here.

This is the first version of the index. Any feedback that you may have (on errors, omissions, redundancies etc) is very welcome – please send your comments to CriminalProcedureRuleEnquiries@Justice.gov.uk.
