

Pension death benefit lump sum: repayment claim

About this form

Use this form to claim back tax we owe you on a pension death benefit lump sum payment you recently received where:

- you've taken a pension death benefit lump sum payment which used up all your fund
- you've received a P45 from your pension provider

If you're not a UK resident for tax purposes you do not need to complete this form. Instead, go to www.gov.uk/tax-foreign-income/taxed-twice or phone the Taxes Helpline on 0300 200 3300.

So that we can make sure we repay the right amount of tax to you, complete this form with details of any other income that you expect to receive during the tax year. If you do not know the final figures enter the most accurate estimates you can.

If you fill in a Self Assessment (SA) Tax Return:

- do not include any estimated SA income in your claim, unless you want us to include this in calculating your repayment
- you'll still need to pay any balancing payments owed and payments on account when due, you can ask us to use your repayment to lower your payments on account
- include any repayment you've received on your next SA tax return
- you must let us know when you no longer need to complete a SA tax return

If you've got PAYE and SA income, we'll not include any SA income in calculating your repayment, unless you ask us to do so.

We'll make checks at the end of the tax year and contact you if the amount is different.

We recommend that you keep this paperwork until these checks are complete.

What to do now

Fill in questions 1 to 9 below, then complete all other questions which are relevant to you.

Use whole numbers, rounded down to the nearest pound.

Make sure that you sign the declaration on page 8.

For further guidance you can phone Tax help for Older People on 01308 488 066. They're an independent charity which provide free tax advice to older people on low incomes.

If you need a large print version of the form phone the Taxes Helpline on 0300 200 3300.

Employment income

Enter your total pay from all employment (including any part-time work) before tax is taken off. You should include the income you expect to receive from 6 April to 5 April of the tax year you received your pension death benefit lump sum payment. If you've more than one job, list each employer and the amount of expected pay from each.

If you've any taxable benefits such as a company car or medical insurance, you also need to include an estimated figure for these. For more information on tax and National Insurance on company benefits, go to www.gov.uk/tax-company-benefits

If you're not sure of the amount of taxable benefit that you're going to receive, you can ask your employer for an estimate of the amount for the tax year.

UK pension income

We'll ask about State Pension details at question 14.

This includes income from:

- · pension annuities
- workplace
- · occupational and personal pensions
- small pension (trivial commutation)
- flexible pension payments paid as lump sums
- lump sum death benefit payment

Customers filling in this form should not include non-taxable income in this section so any lump sum death benefit payment that is tax free, should not be declared.

Enter the full amount of any UK pension income that you expect to get before tax is taken off and the taxable part of the flexible pension payment or pension death benefit sum payment (this will be shown on part 1a of the form P45 that your pension provider gave you).

For more information on how your pension income is taxed, go to www.gov.uk/tax-on-pension

What to do now

We cannot deal with your claim without parts 2 and 3 of your P45 form, your pension provider should have given you this. If you've lost or not received your P45 ask your pension provider for duplicate details before sending this form. If you later find the original P45, you must not give parts 2 and 3 to any new employer or pension provider because this may affect the tax you pay at the end of the year. Do not send photocopies.
