DECLARATION OF SPECIAL MEASURES: FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE

IMPORTS OF PRODUCTS FROM CERTAIN SPECIES FROM EEA STATES, THE FAROE ISLANDS, GREENLAND AND SWITZERLAND

THE TRADE IN ANIMALS AND RELATED PRODUCTS (SCOTLAND) REGULATIONS 2012

The Scottish Ministers have reasonable grounds for suspecting the existence of foot-and-mouth disease in Austria, Germany, Hungary and Slovakia, such that products originating from territories subject to special transitional import arrangements are liable to pose risk to animal health.

Under regulation 25(1) of the Trade in Animals and Related Products (Scotland) Regulations 2012⁽¹⁾, Scottish Ministers declare the following necessary special measures in order to contain the risk to animal health:

Imposition of conditions on products from susceptible animals

1. – (1) The exemption from official controls at border control posts for entry into Scotland of products from susceptible animals originating in a territory subject to special transitional import arrangements as:

- (a) part of passengers' personal luggage and intended for personal consumption or use, or
- (b) part of a small consignment sent to natural persons, which are not intended to be placed on the market, is suspended, unless the products from susceptible animals are of a category and meet the conditions specified in paragraph 2.

(2) Accordingly, such products may only enter Scotland as products subject to official controls at border control posts in accordance with Part 3 of the Trade in Animals and Related Products (Scotland) Regulations 2012 (subject to the derogations and modifications set out in schedule 5 of those Regulations and as if paragraph 1 of schedule 3 of those Regulations did not apply)⁽²⁾, including being accompanied by the appropriate health certificate or relevant commercial documents required by those Regulations for the products concerned, and subject to any other requirements that apply in relation to the import of products from susceptible animals.

Imports of products from susceptible animals remaining exempt from official controls

2. Imports of products from susceptible animals remain exempt from official controls at border control posts as part of passengers' personal luggage where intended for personal consumption or use, or as part of a small consignment sent to natural persons which are not intended to be placed on the market, provided that they belong to at least one of the following two categories:

(2) Part 3 was amended by S.S.I. 2018/391, S.S.I. 2019/412, S.S.I. 2020/455, S.S.I. 2020/458, S.I. 2022/1322 and S.S.I. 2023/374. Schedule 5 was inserted by S.S.I. 2020/458 and amended by S.I. 2021/342, S.I. 2021/493, S.I. 2024/20 and S.I. 2024/541.

- (a) goods listed, and meeting the conditions, in Part 1 (powdered infant milk, infant food, special foods required for medical reasons and petfood required for health related reasons) of Annex 1 to Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No. 2019/2122 of 10 October 2019 supplementing Regulation (EU) 2017/625 of the European Parliament and of the Council as regards certain categories of animals and goods exempted from official controls at border control posts, specific controls on passengers' personal luggage and on small consignments of goods sent to natural persons which are not intended to be placed on the market⁽³⁾, provided that their combined quantity does not exceed the weight limit of 2 kg, or
- (b) products from susceptible animals originating in a territory subject to special transitional import arrangements, other than Austria, Germany, Hungary or Slovakia which:
 - (i) if they are products of animal origin intended for human consumption, bear a health mark or an identification mark,
 - (ii) if they are products derived from animal by-products—
 - (aa) are packaged in accordance with Article 23(1) of Regulation (EC) No 767/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the placing on the market and use of feed⁽⁴⁾, as it has effect in EU law, and include on the package the name and address of the feed business operator responsible for its labelling under Article 12(2) of that Regulation, or
 - (bb) have a label attached to the packaging, container or vehicle, describing the product and stating to which category of animal by-products it belongs, provided that their combined quantity does not exceed the weight of 2 kg.
