Key issues of the decision

Change of registered address

Registered address on Companies house for Glaxo Operations UK Limited was changed on 11/09/2024 to 79 New Oxford Street, London, United Kingdom, WC1A 1DG. Our internal systems have been updated accordingly.

Final state of the site

The permit that is being surrendered is for a Schedule 1, Part A(1) combustion activity, comprising of 7 emergency diesel engine generators with total thermal input of 21.408 MWth. At the time of permit surrender, the permitted site has been sold, and Glaxo Operations UK Limited maintain only limited oversight of the land/plant within the permit boundary.

We are satisfied that all 7 generators have ceased operational activity at the time of permit surrender. We have reviewed the Site Condition Report submitted with the permit surrender application and agree that the permit can be surrendered.

Decision considerations

Confidential information

A claim for commercial or industrial confidentiality has not been made.

Identifying confidential information

We have not identified information provided as part of the application that we consider to be confidential.

Pollution risk

We are satisfied that the necessary measures have been taken to avoid a pollution risk resulting from the operation of the regulated facility.

Satisfactory state

We are satisfied that the necessary measures have been taken to return the site of the regulated facility to a satisfactory state, having regard to the state of the site before the facility was put into operation.

Growth duty

We have considered our duty to have regard to the desirability of promoting economic growth set out in section 108(1) of the Deregulation Act 2015 and the guidance issued under section 110 of that Act in deciding whether to accept this permit surrender.
