

ANNO UNDECIMO & DUODECIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Cap. xliii.

An Act for facilitating the Transfer of the Bristol Docks to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the City of Bristol, and for other Purposes.

[30th June 1848.]

HEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for improving and rendering more com: 43 G.3.c.140. modious the Port and Harbour of Bristol: And whereas an Act was passed in the Forty-sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act to alter and amend an Act passed in the Forty-third 46 G. 3. c. 35. Year of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for improving and ' rendering more commodious the Port and Harbour of Bristol,' and for extending the Powers and Provisions of the said Act: And whereas an Act was passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for completing the Improvement of the Port 48 G. 3. c. 11. of Bristol: And whereas an Act was passed in the Forty-ninth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act to enable the 49 G. 3. c. 17. Bristol Dock Company to borrow a further Sum of Money for completing the Improvements of the Port and Harbour of Bristol: And whereas an Act was passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to alter, amend, 3 G. 4. c. 21. Local.

and explain the several Acts passed for improving and rendering more commodious the Port and Harbour of Bristol: And whereas the Docks by the recited Acts authorized to be constructed have been for many Years completed and opened to the Use of the Public: And whereas if such Docks should become vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the City of Bristol, subject to proper Provisions, Facilities would be afforded for the Improvement of the Trade of the Port and City of Bristol, by equalizing, reducing, or otherwise altering the Rates now payable under the recited Acts or some of them, and which Rates, as now levied are detrimental to such Trade, and it is therefore expedient that such Docks should become vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the City of Bristol at an earlier Period than is provided for by the recited Acts; but the same cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and Short Title. by the Authority of the same, That in citing this Act for any Purposes whatsoever it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Bristol Dock Act, 1848."

to be prejudiced.

LII. And whereas it was by the recited Act of the Forty-third Extinction of Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third enacted, Sinking Fund that, after Payment and Discharge of the whole of the Capital of the paying off the Dock Company, and all Monies borrowed on Security of the Rates Dock Comand Duties thereby granted, all and singular the Messuages, Lands, pany. and Hereditaments purchased by virtue of such Act, and all Buildings; Erections, and other Matters and Things thereon or thereunto belonging, and also all the Docks, Cuts, Canals, Walls, Gates, Works, Buildings, Sluices, Matters, and Things vested in the Dock Company at the Time of such Payment and Discharge, should be and the same were thereby vested in the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, as Owners of the Port of Bristol, and as Conservators of the Rivers within the City and Port of Bristol: And whereas it was by the recited Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third enacted, that there should be annually paid unto the Chamberlain for the Time being of the City of Bristol, the Treasurer for the Time being of the Society of Merchant Venturers of the City of Bristol, and the Trea surer for the Time being of the Dock Company, the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, for forming a Sinking Fund for the Discharge of the Capital of the Dock Company, and of any Money to be borrowed by them, and such Persons were thereby nominated Trustees of such Sinking Fund, with Power to invest the Money so paid to them in the Purchase of Stock in the Funds of the Dock Company, or in other Stocks or Securities, and to accumulate the Income thereof as therein expressed: And whereas such Trustees have accordingly from Time to Time received and accumulated such Money, and such Sinking Fund now consist of Four hundred and fifty-nine Shares in the Dock Company of the aggregate nominal Amount of Sixty-seven thousand six hundred and seventy-nine Pounds Eleven Shillings, and One hundred and thirty-seven of such Promissory Notes of the Dock Company, whereby the Payment of the aggregate Principal Sum of Eleven thousand eight hundred and ninety-two Pounds Seven Shillings and and Three-pence is secured to them, and a small Sum in Cash: And whereas after the Execution of such Transfer such Sinking Fund would be needless, and it is expedient that such Sinking Fund should be abolished; be it therefore enacted, That on the Execution of such Transfer such Four hundred and fifty-nine Shares, and such One hundred and thirty-seven Promissory Notes, and all Right, Title, Interest, Trust, Liability, Claim, and Demand in respect of the same respectively, shall respectively cease to exist or to have any Effect, and such Trustees shall deliver up such One hundred and thirty-seven Promissory Notes to the Corporation to be cancelled, and shall pay all Monies then in the Hands of such Trustees on account of such Sinking Fund to the Credit of the Borough Fund of the City and County of Bristol, and thereupon such Trustees shall be wholly discharged from the Trusts affecting such Sinking Fund, and all Liability, Claims, and Demands in respect of the same; and the-Receipt of the Treasurer of such City and County for such Promissory Notes and Monies shall be sufficient Evidence of the Delivery and Payment thereof.

After Transfer, Act, with 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76, to be carried into execution by Corporation.

LIII. And be it enacted, That after the Execution of such Transfer an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, and all other Laws, whether general or local, for the Time being in force affecting the Municipal Corporation of the City of Bristol, shall, except so far as the same respectively shall be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Provisions or Purposes of this Act, apply to the Purposes of this Act, and to the Corporation, and the Property, Effects, Rates, Tolls, Powers, Privileges, and Authorities for the Time being vested in them or under their Management by virtue or in accordance with the Provisions of this Act, and their Council, Committees, Officers, Agents, and Servants, and all other Persons, with reference to such Property, Effects, Rates, Tolls, Powers, Privileges, and Authorities, and the Receipts, Payments, Credits, and Liabilities connected therewith, and the Bye Laws, Accounts, Contracts, Appointments, Minutes, Entries, Orders, Damages, Penalties, Indemnities, and other Proceedings and Matters relating thereto, and such Acts and Laws and this Act, and the several Acts incorporated therewith, shall accord. ingly be carried into execution with respect to such City as One Act.

As to certain Provisions of the 8 & 9 Vict. c. 16.

LIV. And as regards the Application of the Provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, to the carrying into effect of this Act by the Corporation, be it enacted, That after the Execution of such Transfer the Expressions in such Provisions applicable to a Company shall apply to the Corporation, and applicable to Directors shall apply to the Council of the Corporation; and all Deeds and Writings which by such Provisions are required or directed to be made or executed under the Common Seal of a Company shall be deemed to be required or directed to be made or executed under the Common Seal of the Corporation.

LV. And be it enacted, That after the Execution of such Transfer After Transthe Corporation shall pay to the Company One perpetual yearly fer, Corpora-Rent-charge of Six thousand seven hundred and seventy-three tion to pay Pounds Nine Shillings and Eight-pence, by equal half-yearly Pay- perpetual ments on the First Day of May and the First Day of November in yearly Rentevery Year, and shall make the First of such half-yearly Payments charge. on the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and shall make every Payment thereof clear of all Deducductions whatsoever, the Property or Income Tax only excepted; and the Corporation may, and if required by the Company shall, covenant by such Deed of Transfer for the Payment of such yearly Rent-charge accordingly.

Company a

LVI. And be it enacted, That after the Execution of such Rent-charge, Transfer such yearly Rent-charge, and all Principal Money and Interest &c. to be secured by such Promissory Notes of the Dock Company as for the Time being shall be in force, and all other Sums of Money what-ceipts from soever which according to the Provisions of this Act shall become Tolls, &c. to payable by the Corporation to the Company, or to the Holders of or Persons entitled to such Promissory Notes, and all other the Costs, Charges, and Expenses whatsoever which the Corporation Fund. shall pay or sustain with reference to the Docks and Premises, or in carrying this Act into execution, and a reasonable Sum for defray. ing the Expenses from Time to Time of the Company until the Dissolution thereof, shall be charged upon and paid or satisfied out of the Borough Fund of the City and County of Bristol; and for the Purpose of paying and satisfying the same respectively the Corporation from Time to Time may, and, when necessary, shall levy or order to be levied, by a separate Rate, to be apportioned, assessed, levied, paid, and recovered in like Manner, and with the like Powers and Remedies, and subject to Appeals against the same, in all respects as the Borough Rate of such City and County, such Sums of Money as shall be from Time to Time necessary in that Behalf, and shall apply the same accordingly as if such Rent-charge, Principal Money, and Interest, and other Monies, Costs, Charges, and Expenses, were an Expenditure necessarily incurred in carrying into execution with reference to such City-and County the Provisions of the Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales; and all Monies which shall be borrowed or otherwise raised by the Corporation under the Authority of this Act, and all the Rates, Tolls, Charges, Damages, Penalties, and other Sums of Money and Income whatsoever which shall be received by or for the Benefit of the Corporation with reference to the Docks and Premises, or in carrying this Act into execution, shall be paid to the Credit of such Borough Fund; and the Corporation shall keep distinct Accounts of their Receipts, Payments, Credits, and Liabilities with reference to the Docks and Premises, and the carrying of this Act into execution, to be called "The Bristol Docks Account," and that an Abstract of such Account be published annually in the Month of August in Two Bristol Newspapers: Provided always, that if Default be made in Payment to the Company of such Rent-charge or any Part thereof, or any other Sum of Money whatsoever, which, according to the Provisions of this Act, shall be payable by the Corporation to the Company, [Local.]

charged on, and the Rebe carried to, the Credit of the Borough

Company, or if Default be made in Payment to any Person entitled thereto of the Principal Money or Interest secured by any such Promissory Note, or any Part thereof respectively, for the Space of Thirty Days after the same respectively shall become payable, and after Demand thereof in Writing, the Company or such Person, as the Case may be, may recover the same from the Corporation, with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt in any of the Superior Courts, or any Court of competent Jurisdiction; provided also, that the Amount of the Expenses of the Company to be so paid by the Corporation shall not for any One Year, computed from the Day of the Commencement of this Act, exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds; provided also, that the Liability of the Corporation to pay such Expenses shall, unless the Dissolution of the Company take place previously, wholly cease at the Expiration of Two Years next after such yearly Rent-charge shall have been wholly redeemed, as herein-after provided, or have otherwise ceased.

After Transfer, Corporation to make certain Reductions in the Rates.

LVII. And whereas One great Object contemplated by such Transfer is the Benefit to be derived to such City and County by a Reduction of the Rates on Vessels and Goods by this Act granted, or some of such Rates, and it is in consideration of such Reduction being made that Power is by this Act granted to the Corporation to levy from Time to Time, for such Purposes as by this Act in that Behalf authorized, such a Sum as may for the Time being be raiseable in a Year by a Borough Rate for such City and County, not exceeding Four-pence in the Pound; be it therefore enacted, That after such Transfer the Corporation shall or may from Time to Time make such Reduction of such Rates or some of them as herein-after expressed; (that is to say,) within Three Months after such Transfer the Corporation shall and are hereby required to make a Reduction to such an Extent as they shall estimate to make the yearly Difference between the probable Amount of the Rates to be levied on the reduced Scale and the probable Amount of the Rates if levied on the full Scale expressed in the First Schedule to this Act equal to such a Sum, to be ascertained as herein-after provided, as might be raiseable by such Borough Rate of Four-pence in the Pound, or instead thereof may make a Reduction to such an Extent as they shall estimate to make the yearly Difference between the probable Amount of the Rates to be levied on the reduced Scale and the probable Amount of the Rates if levied on such full Scale equal to the Sum of Nine thousand four hundred Pounds, or as near thereto respectively as Circumstances will reasonably admit; and in every subsequent Year, commencing on the First Day of May, the Corporation may, if there shall for the then preceding Year ending on the Thirtieth Day of April have been in respect of the Docks and Premises any Surplus of ordinary Income (such ordinary Income being reckoned as including the Amount raiseable during such preceding Year by such Borough Rate of Four-pence in the Pound) over ordinary Expenditure, make a Reduction to such an Extent as they shall estimate to make the yearly Difference between the probable Amount of the Rates to be levied on the reduced Scale and the probable Amount of the Rates if levied on the actual Scale as existing at the Close of such preceding Year equal to the Amount of such Surplus, or as near thereto as Circumstances will reasonably reasonably admit: Provided always, that, except as herein-before expressed, the Corporation shall not make any Reduction of such Rates on Vessels and Goods or any of them; provided also, that the Reduction to be made within such Three Months after such Transfer shall, to the Extent to which it is herein-before absolutely required to be made, but not necessarily as regards the particular Rates reduced, be a permanent and irrevocable Reduction; provided also, that, notwithstanding any Reduction of such Rates on Vessels and Goods, or any of them, the Corporation shall have the like Powers, Authorities, Rights, and Remedies for demanding, recovering, and receiving the reduced Rates as if any such Reduction had not been made.

LVIII. And in order to enable Money necessary for carrying this Power for Act into execution to be raised, be it enacted, That the Corporation Corporation may from Time to Time, with the Approval of the Commissioners to borrow Money, with of Her Majesty's Treasury, borrow at Interest such Money as may Consent of be deemed requisite for defraying the Costs, Charges, and Expenses Treasury. of and incidental to the obtaining and passing of this Act, for the necessary Repair, Improvement, Maintenance, and Support of the Docks, for the Redemption of such yearly Rent-charge or any Part thereof, for paying off the Principal Monies secured by such Promissory Notes, or any Part thereof, or for any other of the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution, and may secure the Repayment of the Money so borrowed, with Interest, by Mortgage of the Borough Fund, or any Part thereof, or by Bond: Provided always, that the total Amount which the Corporation may so borrow for the Expenses of obtaining and passing this Act, and any Repairs, Alterations, or Improvements of or Additions to the Docks, shall not exceed Seventy thousand Pounds, and any Part of such Sum finally paid off shall not be re-borrowed.

LIX. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners for carrying Power for into execution an Act passed in the Second Session of the Fifth Public Works Year of the Reign of the Queen, intituled An Act to authorize the missioners to Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund to a limited Amount, make Loans for carrying on Public Works and Fisheries and Employment of the to the Cor-Poor, and to amend the Acts authorizing the Issue of Exchequer Bills poration. for the like Purposes, may from Time to Time make to the Cor 5 & 6 Vict. poration for the Purposes of this, Act any Loan under the Provisions of the last-recited Act, or the several Acts therein recited or referred to, or any other Act or Acts for the Time being in force relating to such Commissioners, on the Security of the Borough Fund or any Part thereof, without other Security.

LX. And be it enacted, That after the Execution of such Transfer Promissory the Monies secured by such Promissory Notes shall continue so Notes of charged on: such Borough Fund; and the Payment of the Principal Dock Com-Monies thereby secured shall not be made or demanded until after be paid off the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty: Pro-till after 1st vided always, that at any Time or Times after the First Day of May May 1860. One thousand eight hundred and sixty the Corporation may pay off such Principal Monies either together or in such Proportions as they may from Time to Time determine, on giving Six Months Notice in

Two Newspapers, and also by Writing delivered at every Banking House for the Time being in the City and County of Bristol, of their Intention to pay off the same at a Time and Place to be specified in such Notice; provided also, that the Order in which such Payments shall be made to the Holders of such Promissory Notes shall be, if necessary, determined by the Corporation by Lot; provided also, that the Holder of any such Promissory Note shall not be bound to accept less than the total Amount of the Principal Money thereby secured; provided also, that at any Time after the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty the Holder of any such Promissory Note may, by Six Months Notice in Writing, require the Corporation to pay off all Principal Money and Interest thereby secured.

Corporation may renew Notes worn out, defaced, or lost;

LXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That after the Execution of such Transfer, when and as often as any such Promissory Note, or any new Promissory Note issued under this Provision, shall be lost, destroyed, or so defaced as to render it necessary or expedient to renew the same, the Corporation shall, on the Application and at the Expense in all things of the Holder of such Promissory Note, and upon having the same delivered up to them to be cancelled, issue in lieu thereof a new Promissory Note under the Hand of the Treasurer of the Corporation, for the same Amount and of similar Tenor and Effect, but to bear Date at the Time of the issuing thereof, and to be made payable to the Holder of such Promissory Note so delivered up to be cancelled, or Bearer, the Corporation taking such Indemnity, if any, against all Losses or Expenses which may be incurred by the Renewal of any such lost, destroyed, or defaced Promissory Note, as they may think proper; and all such renewed Promissory Notes shall for the Purposes of this Act be considered the same in all respects as the original Promissory Notes in lieu whereof the same were issued.

and may dispense with the Production of any Notes lost or destroyed.

LXII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where it may be requisite for the Purposes of this Act that any such Promissory Note should be produced to the Corporation, they may dispense with the Production thereof, in case it shall satisfactorily appear to them that the same cannot, owing to the Loss or Destruction thereof, or any other unavoidable Cause, be produced to them, the Corporation taking such reasonable Indemnity, if any, against all Losses or Expenses in that Behalf, as they may think proper.

Creditors of Corporation requiring Receiver.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That after the Execution of such Transfer the Company in respect of such yearly Rent-charge, and the Holders of such Promissory Notes, and as if they respectively were Mortgagees of the Corporation, may respectively enforce the Payment of all such arrears of Principal and Interest as are Eighteen Months in rarear by the Appointment of a Receiver: Provided always, that the Amount of Debt necessary to authorize a Requisition by the Company for such Receiver shall be a Sum not less than the Amount of One Year's Payment of such Part of such yearly Rentcharge as for the Time being shall be payable; provided also, that the Amount of Debt necessary to authorize a Requisition by the Holders of such Promissory Notes for such Receiver shall be a Sum not not less than One Fifth Part of the aggregate Principal Money for the Time being secured by so many of such Promissory Notes as for the Time being shall be in force.

LXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Corporation Limitation of shall not at any Time (except only for the Purpose of paying such Amount of yearly Rent-charge, and the Principal Money and Interest secured by Rate. such Promissory Notes, and other the Monies which according to the Provisions of this Act shall be payable by the Corporation to the Company, or to the Holders of or Persons entitled to such Promissory Notes, and a reasonable Sum for defraying the Expenses from Time to Time of the Company until the Dissolution thereof, and the Money borrowed by the Corporation under the Authority of this Act, and the Interest thereof, and the necessary Expenses of the Maintenance and Management of the Docks,) raise for the Purposes of this Act by any such Borough Rate in any One Year, reckoned from the First Day of May inclusive, a larger Amount than for the Time being may be raiseable by a Borough Rate for such City and County of Four-pence in the Pound.

Borough

LXV. And, in order that the Amount which for the Time heing Mode of may be raiseable by a Borough Rate for such City and County of ascertaining the Four-pence in the Pound may be for the Purposes of this Act ascer- of such limittained, be it enacted, That the Justices assembled at any Petty ed Borough Sessions of the Peace for such City and County within Three Months Rate. after such Transfer, or at some Adjournment thereof to be holden within Fourteen Days next thereafter, (and which Sessions they are hereby authorized and required to hold,) may, and upon the Application of the Corporation shall, order and appoint, by Writing under the Hand of the Town Clerk of such City and County, what Amount shall be deemed the Amount raiseable in the Year commencing on the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight by a Borough Rate for such City and County of Four-pence in the Pound, and in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine and every subsequent Year the Justices assembled at any such Sessions within Fourteen Days after the Twenty-fifth Day of March in such respective Year, or at some Adjournment thereof to be holden within Fourteen Days next thereafter, (and which Sessions they are hereby authorized and required to hold,) may, and upon the Application of the Corporation shall, order and appoint, by Writing under the Hand of such Town Clerk, what Amount shall be deemed the Amount raiseable in the Year commencing on the First Day of May in such respective Year by a Borough Rate for such City and County of Four-pence in the Pound; and a Copy of every such Order, signed by such Town Clerk, shall be by him transmitted to the Mayor of such City and County; and the Amount so ordered and appointed shall for the Purposes of this Act be deemed the Amount raiseable in such respective Year by a Borough Rate for such City and County of Four-pence in the Pound.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That on the Receipt by the Company of any Money for the Redemption of such yearly Rent-charge or any Part thereof the Company shall apply such Money in paying off One or more (to be, except when all the Shares for the Time being are to be paid off, determined by the Company by Lot,) of the Shares for the Time being in the Capital of the Company, and shall accordingly pay the same unto or divide and pay the same to and among the several Persons who at the Time of the Receipt thereof shall be the Proprietor or Proprietors of such Shares, or his or their respective Executors, Administrators, or Assigns.

Company not bound by Trusts.

LXXVI. And be it enacted, That the Company shall not be bound to see to the Executon of any Trust, whether expressed, implied, or constructive, to which any Money so divided and paid by them may be subject; but the Receipts of the Persons whose Receipts would, if such Money were Dividends on Shares in the Capital of the Company, be sufficient Discharges for the same, shall be sufficient Discharges to the Company for such Money.

Corporation may buy up Shares.

LXXVII. And be it enacted, That the Corporation may, if they think fit, from Time to Time purchase any of the Shares for the Time being in the Capital of the Company which the Holder thereof shall be willing to sell, so as the Consideration for such Purchase be a Sum less than the Amount which for the Time being it would be necessary for the Company to pay in order so to pay off such Share; and when the Corporation have purchased any such Share they may give Notice thereof to the Company, or their Clerk or Secretary for the Time being, and on furnishing to the Company or such Clerk or Secretary Evidence to their or his reasonable Satisfaction of such Purchase having been made an Entry thereof shall be made by such Clerk or Secretary in the Books of the Company, and the Amount of such yearly Rent-charge thenceforth payable by the Corporation shall be proportionately reduced accordingly, and on and after the making of such Reduction the Share so purchased shall be deemed to have been fully paid off.

Dissolution of the Company.

LXXVIII. And be it enacted, That as soon as such yearly Rentcharge shall have been wholly redeemed or have otherwise ceased, and all Monies received by the Company in respect of such yearly Rentcharge, or the Redemption thereof, shall have been duly divided and paid, or otherwise duly appropriated by the Company, and all Claims on the Company shall have been fully satisfied or discharged, the Company shall be dissolved and wholly cease to exist: Provided always, that until the Company shall be so dissolved such of the Powers, Privileges, Privileges, and Authorities by this Act or the several Acts incorporated therewith, or any other Act or Acts, granted to or conferred on the Company, as may be necessary for enabling the several Purposes for the Time being of this Act with reference to the Company and the Shareholders thereof to be effected, may be held, exercised, and enjoyed by the Company as if such Transfer had not been executed; provided also, that such Reservation of Powers, Privileges, and Authorities to the Company shall not in any way derogate from or prejudice any of the Powers, Privileges, and Authorities which by or by virtue of this Act or the several Acts incorporated therewith, or any other Act or Acts or Laws, shall be granted to or for the Time being conferred on the Corporation.

LXXIX. And be it enacted, That, except as by this Act expressly Saving of provided, nothing in this Act contained shall derogate from or pre-Rights, judice any of the Rights, Powers, or Privileges of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the City and County of Bristol, of the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers of the City of Bristol, or of the Dean and Chapter of the City of Bristol, but all such Rights, Powers, and Privileges shall be as good, valid, and effectual as if this Act had not been passed.

LXXX. And be it enacted, That all the Costs, Charges, and Ex-Expenses of pences of and incidental to the obtaining and passing of this Act Act. shall be paid by the Corporation out of such Borough Fund, and be repaid to such Borough Fund out of the first Monies borrowed by the Corporation under the Authority of this Act.

LXXXI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and Commence take effect on the Thirtieth Day next after the passing of the same. ment of Act LXXXII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be a Public Act, Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.
