Bristol Port and Channel Dock Company (Extension of Time) Act, 1882.

[Ch. viii.]

CHAPTER viii.

An Act to revive the powers and extend the period for the compulsory purchase of lands and to extend the period for the completion of the Works authorised by the Bristol Port and Channel Dock Act 1877 and for other purposes. A.D. 1882.
[19th May 1882.]

WHEREAS by the Bristol Port and Channel Dock Act 1877 (in this Act referred to as "the Act of 1877") the Bristol Port and Channel Dock Company (in this Act called "the Company") were authorised to make and maintain the graving dock piers and works mentioned in that Act: 40 & 41 Vict.
c. lxxv.

And whereas by the Act of 1877 the periods for the compulsory purchase of lands for and for the completion of such works were limited to three and five years respectively from the passing of that Act which received the Royal Assent on the twenty-eighth day of June 1877 :

And whereas it is expedient that the said powers for the compulsory purchase of lands should be revived and the time for the completion of the said works should be extended as herein-after provided :

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows ; (that is to say),

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Bristol Port and Channel Dock Company (Extension of Time) Act 1882. Short title.
