SUMMARY REASONS

Background

1. Following an objection from the Tenant to the determination of a fair rent by the Rent Officer, the Tribunal has made a determination under the provisions of the Rent Act 1977.

Inspection

2. The Tribunal did not inspect the property but considered this case on the basis of the papers provided by the parties.

Evidence

3. The Tribunal has consideration of the reply form provided by the Tenant and the documents provided by the Rent Officer, which include the Landlord's original application form. There were no additional written submissions sent to the Tribunal by the Landlord.
4. The property is a ground floor flat. There is a kitchen, bathroom, separate WC, living room and two bedrooms. The flat has central heating and double glazing provided by the Landlord. The Tenant has provided all white goods, carpets and curtains.

Determination and Valuation

5. Having consideration of our own expert, general knowledge of rental values in the area, we consider that the open market rent for the property in good tenantable condition would be in the region of £450 per week. From this level of rent we have made adjustments in relation to:
 - The terms and conditions of the tenancy.
 - The Tenant having provided all white goods, floor and window coverings and other furnishings.
6. The Tribunal has also made an adjustment for scarcity.
7. The full valuation is shown below:

MARKET RENT			Per week £450
Less
Terms of tenancy)
Tenant's provision of white goods, furniture, etc)	approx. 10%	£45.00
Market rent less deductions			£405.00
Less scarcity		approx. 20%	£81.00
Market rent less deductions and scarcity			£324.00
ADJUSTED MARKET RENT			£324

8. The Tribunal determines a rent of £324 per week.

Decision

9. The uncapped fair rent initially determined by the Tribunal, for the purposes of section 70, was £324 per week. The capped rent for the property according to the provisions of the Rent Acts (Maximum Fair Rent) Order 1999 is calculated at £213 per week. The calculation of the capped rent is shown on the decision form. In this case the lower rent of £213 per week is to be registered as the fair rent for this property.
10. The Tribunal notes that the Landlord proposed a lower rental figure in its application form. The Landlord is entitled, but not compelled, to charge the Tenant rent at the registered figure from the effective date.
