

Julia Wood

This is greenbelt land that has never been built on. It will not allow affordable housing for the residents of Chiswell Green in their 20s and 30s who cannot afford to buy, despite being highly qualified and in work.

Homes must be affordable and people born and raised here have to have priority