TELECOMMUNICATIONS

The Product Security and Telecommunications Infrastructure Act
2022 (Commencement No. 4, Saving and Transitional Provisions)
Regulations 2025

Made - - - - *******

The Secretary of State makes these Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 76(1) and 79(2) of the Product Security and Telecommunications Infrastructure Act 2022(a).

PART 1

Introduction and Commencement

Citation and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Product Security and Telecommunications Infrastructure Act 2022 (Commencement No. 4, Saving and Transitional Provisions) Regulations 2025.

(2) In these Regulations “the 2022 Act” means the Product Security and Telecommunications Infrastructure Act 2022.

Provisions coming into force on [date]

2. The following provisions of the 2022 Act come into force on [date]—

- (a) section 61 (rent under tenancies conferring code rights: England and Wales);
- (b) section 62 (rent under tenancies conferring code rights: Northern Ireland);
- (c) section 63 (compensation relating to code rights: England and Wales);
- (d) section 64 (compensation relating to code rights: Northern Ireland).

PART 2

Saving and Transitional Provision: England and Wales

Application and interpretation of Part

3.—(1) This Part applies in relation to a current tenancy (in this Part, a “relevant current tenancy”) where—

- (a) the current tenancy is a subsisting agreement within the meaning of Schedule 2 to the Digital Economy Act 2017^(a); and
 - (b) the primary purpose of the current tenancy is to confer code rights (within the meaning of paragraph 3 of that Schedule).
- (2) In paragraph (1), “current tenancy” has the same meaning as in Part 2 of the 1954 Act^(b).
- (3) In this Part “the 1954 Act” means the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954^(c).

Saving provision in relation to sections 61 and 63 of the 2022 Act

4.—(1) The amendments made by sections 61 and 63 of the 2022 Act do not apply to a relevant current tenancy where—

- (a) a relevant notice has been given; and
 - (b) the relevant date falls before [CIF date].
- (2) In this regulation—
- (a) a “relevant notice” means, in relation to a relevant current tenancy, a notice given under section 25 (termination of tenancy by the landlord) or section 26 (tenant’s request for a new tenancy) of the 1954 Act;
 - (b) the “relevant date” means—
 - (i) where the relevant notice is given under section 25 of the 1954 Act, the date specified in the notice as the date on which the tenancy is to come to an end; or
 - (ii) where the relevant notice is given under section 26 of the 1954 Act, the date specified in the notice as the date on which the tenant has requested a new tenancy begin.

Transitional provision in relation to sections 61 and 63 of the 2022 Act

5.—(1) This regulation applies to a relevant current tenancy where—

- (a) an interim rent application has been made;
 - (b) the appropriate date falls before [CIF date]; and
 - (c) regulation 4 does not apply in relation to the relevant current tenancy.
- (2) The interim rent for a relevant current tenancy to which this regulation applies is the sum of—
- (a) the pre-commencement interim rent; and
 - (b) the post-commencement interim rent.

^(a) 2017 c. 30.

^(b) See sections 23 and 46(1) of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 (c. 56).

^(c) Relevant amendments to the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 are the insertion of sections 24A to 24D, and the amendments of sections 25, 26 and 46, all of which were inserted by S.I. 2003/3096.

(3) In paragraph (2)(a), the “pre-commencement interim rent” is the interim rent that would be determined under section 24C (amount of interim rent where new tenancy of whole premises granted and landlord not opposed) or (as the case may be) section 24D (amount of interim rent in any other case) of the 1954 Act for the pre-commencement period if—

- (a) the amendments made by sections 61 and 63 of the 2022 Act did not apply; and
- (b) section 24C of the 1954 Act were modified in accordance with paragraph (5).

(4) In paragraph (3), the “pre-commencement period” is the part of the interim rent period which—

- (a) begins with the appropriate date; and
- (b) ends with [the date which is one day before CIF date].

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (3), section 24C of the 1954 Act is to be read as if—

- (a) in subsection (2), for the words from “the rent payable” to the end there were substituted “the interim rent is the relevant rent”;
- (b) in subsection (3), paragraph (a) were omitted;
- (c) subsection (5) were omitted;
- (d) in subsection (6), for the words “only of subsection (3)(b) above, or by virtue of subsection (3)(a) and (b) above,” there were substituted “of subsection (3) above”.

(6) In paragraph (2)(b), the “post-commencement interim rent” is the interim rent determined under section 24C or (as the case may be) section 24D of the 1954 Act for the part of the interim rent period which—

- (a) begins with [CIF date]; and
- (b) ends with the date of termination of the relevant current tenancy in accordance with the provisions of the 1954 Act.

(7) In this regulation—

- (a) “an interim rent application” means, in relation to a relevant current tenancy, an application to the court under section 24A (applications for determination of interim rent while tenancy continues) of the 1954 Act to determine an interim rent;
- (b) “the appropriate date” has the same meaning as in section 24B (date from which interim rent is payable) of the 1954 Act;
- (c) “the interim rent period” means, in relation to a relevant current tenancy, the period for which interim rent determined on an application under section 24A(1) of the 1954 Act is payable.

PART 3

Saving and Transitional Provision: Northern Ireland

Application and interpretation of Part

6.—(1) This Part applies in relation to a current tenancy (in this Part, a “relevant current tenancy”) where—

- (a) the current tenancy is a subsisting agreement within the meaning of Schedule 2 to the Digital Economy Act 2017; and
- (b) the primary purpose of the current tenancy is to confer code rights (within the meaning of paragraph 3 of that Schedule).

- (2) In paragraph (1), “current tenancy” has the same meaning as in the 1996 Order^(a).
- (3) In this Part—
- (a) “a relevant notice” means, in relation to a relevant current tenancy, a notice given under Article 6 (termination of tenancy by the landlord) or Article 7 (request by tenant for a new tenancy) of the 1996 Order; and
- (b) “the 1996 Order” means the Business Tenancies (Northern Ireland) Order 1996^(b).

Saving provision in relation to sections 62 and 64 of the 2022 Act

7.—(1) The amendments made by sections 62 and 64 of the 2022 Act do not apply to a relevant current tenancy where—

- (a) a relevant notice has been given; and
- (b) the relevant date falls before [CIF date].
- (2) In this regulation the “relevant date” means—
- (a) where the relevant notice is given under Article 6 of the 1996 Order, the date specified in the notice as the date on which the tenancy is to come to an end; or
- (b) where the relevant notice is given under Article 7 of the 1996 Order, the date specified in the notice as the date on which the tenant has requested a new tenancy begin.

Transitional provision in relation to sections 62 and 64 of the 2022 Act

- 8.—(1) This regulation applies to a relevant current tenancy where—
- (a) a relevant notice has been given;
- (b) the term of the relevant current tenancy is extended in consequence of the operation of Article 11(1) of the 1996 Order;
- (c) the Lands Tribunal makes an order under Article 11(3) of the 1996 Order to vary the rent payable under the relevant current tenancy; and
- (d) regulation 7 does not apply in relation to the relevant current tenancy.
- (2) The interim rent for a relevant current tenancy to which this regulation applies is the sum of—
- (a) the pre-commencement interim rent; and
- (b) the post-commencement interim rent.
- (3) In paragraph (2)(a), the “pre-commencement interim rent” is the interim rent that would be determined for the pre-commencement period if the amendments made by sections 62 and 64 of the 2022 Act did not apply.
- (4) In paragraph (3), the “pre-commencement period” is the part of the interim rent period which—
- (a) begins with the date from which the Lands Tribunal orders the interim rent is payable; and
- (b) ends with [the date which is one day before CIF date].
- (5) In paragraph (2)(b), the “post-commencement interim rent” is the interim rent for the part of the interim rent period which—
- (a) begins with [the CIF date]; and

(a) See Articles 2(2), 3 and 4 of S.I. 1996/725 (N.I. 5).

(b) S.I. 1996/725 (N.I. 5). Article 6 was amended by S.I. 1997/1179 (N.I. 8).

- (b) ends with the date of termination of the relevant current tenancy in accordance with the provisions of the 1996 Order.
- (6) In this regulation—
 - (a) “the interim rent” means the rent as varied by order of the Lands Tribunal under Article 11(3) of the 1996 Order; and
 - (b) “the interim rent period” means the period for which the interim rent is payable.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations bring into force on [date] sections 61 to 64 of the Product Security and Telecommunications Act 2022 (c. 46) ("the 2022 Act"). They are the fourth commencement regulations made under the Act.

Section 61 inserts into the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 (c. 56) ("the 1954 Act") new section 34A, which provides that the determination by the court of the rent payable under a new tenancy conferring rights under Schedule 3A to the Communications Act 2003 (c. 21) (the "code") in England and Wales includes the assumption that the rights to which the transaction relates do not relate to the provision or use of an electronic communications network.

Section 62 inserts into the Business Tenancies (Northern Ireland) Order 1996 (S.I. 1996/725 (N.I. 5)) ("the 1996 Order") new Article 18A which provides that the determination by the Lands Tribunal of the rent payable under a new tenancy conferring code rights in Northern Ireland includes the same assumption.

Section 63 inserts into the 1954 Act new section 34B which provides that the court may order the tenant to pay compensation to the landlord in certain circumstances in England and Wales, and section 64 inserts into the 1996 Order new Article 18B which also provides that the court may order the tenant to pay compensation in certain circumstances in Northern Ireland.

Regulations 3 and 6 define a relevant current tenancy as a subsisting agreement within the meaning of Schedule 2 of the Digital Economy Act 2017 (c. 30) ("the 2017 Act") where the primary purpose of the tenancy is to confer code rights and the tenancy falls under the 1954 Act or the 1996 Order respectively.

Regulation 4 provides that the amendments made by sections 61 and 63 of the 2022 Act do not apply to a relevant current tenancy in England and Wales where the relevant date provided in the relevant notice falls before the day on which those sections come into force.

Regulation 5 makes transitional provision in respect of the amendments made to the 1954 Act by sections 61 and 63 of the 2022 Act as they relate to the determination of pre-commencement and post-commencement interim rent.

Regulation 7 provides that the amendments made by sections 62 and 64 of the 2022 Act do not apply to a relevant current tenancy in Northern Ireland where the relevant date provided in the relevant notice falls before the day on which those sections come into force.

Regulation 8 makes transitional provision in respect of the amendments made to the 1996 Order by sections 62 and 64 of the 2022 Act as they relate to the determination of pre-commencement and post-commencement interim rent and what the Lands Tribunal considers proper in all the circumstances for the purposes of an order under Article 11(3) of the 1996 Order.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.

A de minimis assessment was produced in relation to the provisions of the Act, a copy of which is available at <https://bills.parliament.uk/publications/46572/documents/1826> or from the Department for Science, Innovation and Technology at 100 Parliament Street, London SW1A 2BQ, United Kingdom.

The Explanatory Notes to the 2022 Act provide further explanation of the reforms to the code, the 1954 Act and the 1996 Order introduced by the 2022 Act and are available online (<https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2022/46/notes/division/1/index.htm>) and in hard copy from TSO, PO Box 29, Norwich, NR3 1GN (telephone orders/general enquiries: 0333 202 5070).
