Decision

The price payable by the Applicant for the freehold interest in 24 Pullman Crescent, Leeds, LS12 6EJ is £186.00

Introduction

1. By an order made on 21 March 2023 in the County Court at Leeds the claim between Ryan George Haley (“the Applicant” in the present case) v Persons Unknown (“the Respondents” in the present case) under case number J01LS706 was transferred to the First-tier Tribunal (Property Chamber) to determine the price payable for the freehold interest in 24 Pullman Crescent, Leeds, LS12 6EJ (“the Premises”) in accordance with s.9 of the Leasehold Reform Act 1967 (“the Act”).
2. The Applicant is the tenant of the Premises, which comprises “a house” within the meaning of s.2(1) of Act. The Applicant’s tenancy is a “long tenancy” within the meaning of s.3(1) of the Act and at the date of claim, the Applicant has been the tenant under a long tenancy for at least two years and is the freehold owner of the remainder of the house. The Applicant is prevented from giving notice of his desire to have the freehold transferred to him because the person to be served with notice cannot be found and their identity cannot be ascertained.
3. By virtue of s.27(1) of the Act, on 21 March 2023, the County Court vested the freehold interest in the leasehold part of the Premises in the Applicant.

The Premises

4. From the information provided by the Applicant, the Premises is a three-story end terrace house built about three years ago by Taylor Wimpey. It comprises a living room, kitchen-diner, cloakroom with wc, 4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms with a wc. The Premises has 2 allocated parking spaces for private use.
5. The leasehold title to the Premises is registered at HM Land Registry under title number YY122729. The lease of the land which includes the Premises was granted on 25 March 1661 for a term of 500 years from 25 July 1661. The original parties to the lease were (1) William Wise and (2) Richard Bland. The remainder of the term granted by the lease was purchased by Taylor Wimpey UK Ltd. In 2014 for the purpose of developing the site and building a number of properties including the Premises.
6. On 28 May 2019, an assignment of part of the land comprised in the lease was made in respect of the Premises between Taylor Wimpey UK Ltd. and the Applicant. When the Applicant purchased the freehold of the Premises, he had no knowledge that the developer only owned the leasehold interest in the land on which the Premises is built. The developer has admitted it is not the freehold owner and cannot transfer the freehold interest to the Applicant.

7. For the purposes of the applicable financial limit specified in s.1(1)(a)(ii) of the Act on the date the tenancy was entered into the value of “R” did not exceed £25,000 under the statutory formula under s.1(1)(a)(ii) of the Act. The annual ground rent payable under the lease is one peppercorn and is therefore less than £250 per year and a such is a tenancy at “a low rent” in accordance with s.4(1)(ii) of the Act.

Valuation approach

8. The valuation approach under s.9(1) of the Act has three stages: (1) capitalise the annual rent until the expiry of the term of the lease – referred to as “term 1”, (2) is to calculate the modern ground rent and capitalise this for 50 years and then defer the capitalised sum to the date of valuation – referred to as “term 2”, (3) is to defer the market value of the standing house for term 1 plus term 2 which is referred to as “the reversion”.
9. The Tribunal has calculated the modern ground rent by the “standing house” approach which is to estimate (a) the entirety value of the property – the market value if the site is fully developed, (b) the site value by taking a percentage of the entirety value, and (c) taking a percentage of the site value.
10. The Tribunal considers that the site is fully developed, and that the entirety value is the market value of the standing house.
11. The Tribunal has not inspected the Premises and has relied on the evidence presented by the Applicant, including his witness statement in the County Court and his expert valuer Mr G R Bates BA FRICS. Mr Bates appears to have adopted the correct approach to the valuation as provided in the legislation and in accordance with relevant professional guidance.

The price to be paid for the freehold interest

12. The lease is for 500 years from 25 July 1661 at a peppercorn rent.
13. The valuation date is 6 September 2022, the date the application was made to the court for a vesting order.
14. The unexpired term of the lease at the valuation date is approximately 139 years.
15. The basis for the valuation is s.9(1) of the Act which assumes a 50-year lease extension at a modern ground rent.

16. The Tribunals valuation is:

Term 1	ground rent for 139 years	£	pa	£
Term 2	entirety value	£270,000
	site apportionment @ 37.5%	£101,250
	modern ground rent @ 4.75%	£4,809
	YP 50 years deferred 139 years @4.75%	£0.0030		£144
Reversion	standing house value	£270,000
	PV of £1 in 189 years @4.75%	£0.000156		£42
Enfranchisement price	(excluding costs)			£186

RIGHT OF APPEAL

A person wishing to appeal this decision to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber) must seek permission to do so by making written application to the First-tier Tribunal at the Regional Office, which has been dealing with the case.

The application must arrive at the Tribunal within 28 days after the Tribunal sends to the person making the application written reasons for the decision.

If the person wishing to appeal does not comply with the 28-day time limit, that person shall include with the application for permission to appeal a request for an extension of time and the reason for not complying with the 28-day time limit; the Tribunal will then decide whether to extend time or not to allow the application for permission to appeal to proceed.

The application for permission to appeal must identify the decision of the Tribunal to which it relates, state the grounds of appeal, and state the result the party making the application is seeking.
