

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant:

Mr R Jasevicius

v

Respondent:

Lidl Great Britain Limited

Heard at: London (South) (via CVP)

On: 14 April 2025

Before: Employment Judge Fredericks-Bowyer

Appearances

For the claimant: Did not Attend

For the respondent: Mr L Mulholland (Solicitor)

JUDGMENT

1. The claim is dismissed upon the non-attendance of the claimant at the final hearing under Rule 47 Employment Tribunal Procedure Rules 2024.
2. Before making this decision, the Judge was satisfied that all reasonable enquiries about non-attendance had been made, in that:-
 - 2.1. The claimant had received notice of the hearing;
 - 2.2. The claimant had not complied with the case management orders concerning preparation for the hearing;
 - 2.3. The claimant had not contacted the respondent at all since issuing the claim;
 - 2.4. The claimant failed to attend the hearing today, despite having been sent the joining details;
 - 2.5. The claimant provided no reasons for non-attendance in advance; and

2.6. When the clerk telephoned the claimant to secure his attendance by Cloud Video Platform, he did not answer.

Approved by: Employment Judge Fredericks-Bowyer

14 April 2025