- 8.2 Most Immigration work is not within the scope of Legal Aid and is, therefore, not covered by this Specification. All work in relation to Judicial Review is subject to the exclusions in paragraph 19 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act. Paragraphs 8.7 and 8.8 contain details of what remains within scope in the Immigration and Asylum Category. These are not exhaustive and should be read subject to the full provisions in Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act.

- 8.3 This Specification covers Contract Work within the Immigration and Asylum Category of Law in England and Wales which is within the scope of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act.

Forms of Civil Legal Services

- 8.4 Contract Work in the Immigration and Asylum Category of Law can be carried out as 3 different Forms of Civil Legal Services:

Work subject to Exclusive Schedule Authorisations

- 8.5 In addition to the Schedule for mainstream Immigration and Asylum Contract Work as described in Section 1 of this Civil Specification, there are two separate arrangements in the Immigration and Asylum Category of Law which are subject to specific Schedule Authorisation. Your Contract for Signature or Schedule will denote whether you have Schedule Authorisation to carry out Contract Work under:

- (a) Detained Duty Advice Scheme in an IRC; and
- (b) the Detained Asylum Casework Scheme.

- 8.6 Unless you have Schedule Authorisation you may not provide Contract Work under the special contract arrangements specified in Paragraph 8.5 unless:

- (b) in the case of a Client detained in an IRC only, the Client is an existing Client on whom you have attended in the UK and carried out at least five hours work (excluding travel and waiting) prior to the Client's detention. In this case you should continue to act for the Client until you reach the completion of the next stage of the Matter. At this point you should decide whether it is in the best interests of the Client to refer the matter to a Provider with Schedule Authorisation or to continue to represent the Client yourself; or

- (c) there are no providers with Schedule Authorisation in the IRC Procurement Area where the Client is detained; or
- (d) the Client has an appeal listed at a designated DAC Scheme location, however, if you do not hold an Exclusive Schedule Authorisation as specified in Paragraph 8.5 and are not authorised to provide Contract Work under the special contract arrangements specified in Paragraph 8.5 you may provide Contract Work to Clients that is not restricted to holders of Exclusive Schedule Authorisations.

- 8.10 You may either continue to act for the Client (if you are permitted by this Contract to provide legal advice in the Family, Community Care, Public Law or Housing Category of Law) or make a referral at the earliest possible opportunity to an alternative Provider who is permitted to provide such legal advice. In any event you should continue to act in relation to the Immigration or Asylum Matter if it is still ongoing.

- 8.11 The Director may restrict the extent of your Delegated Functions relating to Controlled Work by varying an Authorisation.

- 8.24 The Client's unique Client number must be noted on the Client's file and used in all claims and correspondence with us relating to that Client. Claims that do not use the Client's unique Client number will be rejected until the correct number is supplied. - 8.24A The number of Matters where your Client does not attend you in person either because you accept an application under Paragraph 3.15 or provide telephone or email advice under Paragraph 3.18, must not exceed 75% of your total Matters opened in any Schedule period. For the avoidance of doubt, where you accept a postal or faxed application under Paragraphs 3.15 or provide telephone or email advice under Paragraphs 3.18 in order to comply with your duties under the Equality Act 2010, this will not count towards the 75% limit set out in this Paragraph 8.24A.

Matter Start rules

- 8.30 A Matter Start under Paragraph 8.29 is a separate Matter Start to any associated Immigration or Asylum Matter.
- 8.31 Advice in relation to obligations under a Priority Removal Notice is a separate Matter Start to any associated Immigration or Asylum Matter.
- 8.32 An Immigration application and any Immigration appeal other than Standard Fee Stage 2(a), 2(b) or 2(c) Claims will constitute separate Matters. The appropriate UKVI unique Client number for both Matters will be that of the original application given by the UKVI.
- 8.33 An Immigration application and any Immigration appeal attracting a Standard Fee Stage 2(a), 2(b) or 2(c) Claim will constitute one Matter. The appropriate UKVI unique Client number will be that of the original application given by the UKVI.
- 8.34 Any associated or additional application to an application within scope of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act on human rights grounds will also form part of the same Asylum Matter.
- 8.35 Where a Client has made or wishes to make a fresh application for Asylum then this new application would constitute a new Matter Start.
- 8.36 Any associated advice in relation to the National Referral Mechanism will not constitute a separate Matter from the original Matter and you may not open a separate Matter Start.
- 8.37 Where you have an ongoing Matter, work undertaken in relation to a determination that the Client qualifies for civil legal services provided as Licensed Work including complying with any pre-action protocol may be undertaken as part of the same Matter.

Supplementary Matter Starts

- 8.37A If you are a Lot 1 Provider you may self-grant Supplementary Matter Starts in the Immigration and Asylum Category of Law, save that the total number of Supplementary Matter Starts you may self-grant in any year of the Contract Period may not exceed an amount which is equal to 100% of your existing allocation of Matter Starts in the Immigration and Asylum Category for that year.

Multiple Applications

- 8.43 You must ensure that the Client receives advice on the appropriateness of making a Bail application at any particular time (including when appeal rights have been exhausted).

- 8.44 Where appropriate, you should consider making a Bail application to the Secretary of State or the appropriate court.
- 8.45 Even where a Client's substantive Immigration or Asylum appeal lacks merits as set out in the Merits Regulations and therefore would not warrant the making of a determination that the Client qualifies for CLR, the case may still warrant the making of a determination that the Client qualifies for CLR for a Bail application. CLR can be granted for the sole purpose of making a Bail application.
- 8.46 Where an appeal is listed for a Tribunal Hearing, you must always consider making a Bail application. If you decide not to make a Bail application during the Tribunal Hearing of the appeal you must record your reasons on the file.

- 8.48 Where CLR is refused or withdrawn you must, as soon as possible and in any event within 5 days of the decision, provide the Client with a copy of the CW4 form (or such other form as specified by us) and provide details of the Client's right to a review of your (or our) decision (including details of the appropriate procedure). You should provide your Client with our address to which the Client should submit their review. Alternatively, you can, if instructed, submit the review to us on the Client's behalf.
- 8.49 Where the hearing date is already set then the review application should be submitted immediately, and the urgency of the application should be clearly stated on the form.
- 8.50 Where you have made a determination to grant, refuse or withdraw CLR (either in relation to a substantive Matter or Bail) you must record the reasons on the file. You must also keep a record of any grants of CLR by the Independent Funding Adjudicator where the Client has returned to you.
- 8.51 Where a determination is made that a Client qualifies for CLR you must consider the merits of the case as set out in the Merits Regulations at each stage of the proceedings.

Detained cases

- 8.52 You may only provide advice and representation to Clients under the Detained Duty Advice Scheme and/or the DAC Scheme if you have been granted Schedule Authorisation to do so. However, if you do not have Exclusive Schedule Authorisation for the DDAS and DAC schemes, you may provide advice and representation to Clients outside those schemes in other places of detention e.g. prisons, IRCs or other designated places of UKVI detention. In accordance with Paragraph 8.42 you must advise the detained Client in relation to the appropriateness of any Bail applications.

- 8.53 Where you are providing advice and representation under Paragraph 8.52 you should continue to act for the Client until:
- (a) the Client formally ceases to give instructions;

- 8.63 In the circumstances described in Paragraph 8.62 you must close the Priority Removal Notice Matter and submit a Claim based on Hourly Rates for the work undertaken to that point.

Client travel

- 8.64 Subject to Paragraph 8.65, the cost of the Client's travel to attend on you to give instructions are claimable as a disbursement, where at the point the Matter is started, no other more local Provider can assist the Client and the Client is either:

However, disbursements are only payable within the Legal Help or CLR disbursement limit that applied at the point they were incurred. Disbursement limits cannot be amended retrospectively.

- 8.97 Where Stage 1 and Stage 2 Claims are specified as constituting a single Matter the Matter will be treated as an Escape Fee Case where, following the conclusion of Stage 2 of the Matter (or earlier if the Matter concludes before this), the value of the Controlled Work, when calculated as if it were paid at the appropriate Hourly Rate, exceeds the relevant Stage Threshold.
- 8.98 The Stage Thresholds are:
- (a) 3 times the applicable Standard Fee for the Matter where the relevant Legal Help form was signed, or CLR was granted, on or before 31 March 2023; and
 - (b) 2 times the applicable Standard Fee for the Matter where the relevant Legal Help form was signed, or CLR was granted, on or after 1 April 2023.
- 8.99 In order to calculate whether a Matter becomes an Escape Fee Case, the following steps must be applied:
- (a) identify the total hours spent on the Matter up to the end of the last stage remunerated under the Standard Fee Scheme or when the Matter concludes (whichever is earlier), including any advocacy services but excluding services which are outside the Standard Fee and are always payable at Hourly Rates (as specified under Paragraph 8.101);

- (b) calculate the total costs for the hours spent on such services using the Hourly Rates set out in the Remuneration Regulations to determine the 'gross total' (Total A);
 - (c) from Total A deduct all the claims for additional payments (as set out in Remuneration Regulations) paid or payable, to determine the 'reduced total' (Total B);
 - (d) identify the Standard Fee(s) claimable for the Matter and multiply that total by the Stage Threshold (Total C); and
 - (e) if Total B exceeds Total C then the Matter has escaped the Standard Fee Scheme and is therefore an Escape Fee Case payable at Hourly Rates.
- 8.100 Any previous Claims paid in respect of the Matter will be reconciled against Total B (in Paragraph 8.99(c)) to determine the final payment to be made for the Escape Fee Case.

A PART E - IMMIGRATION REMOVAL CENTRES

Scope of IRC Contract Work

- 8.146 This part of the Specification sets out the additional rules that apply if you hold a Schedule Authorisation permitting you to deliver Controlled Work at Immigration Removal Centres through either the Detained Duty Advice Scheme or the DAC Scheme.
- 8.147 Where you obtain a Client through an IRC Rota and a Controlled Work Matter is subsequently commenced by you in relation to that Client the remaining rules in this Specification will also apply to that Contract Work. The number of Clients wishing to access the service via places on the IRC Rota will vary as demand for the service is outside our control and we make no guarantee or representation as to the volumes of Clients seeking services.
- 8.148 All Contract Work undertaken for a Client detained at an IRC is a Reserved Matter.

IRC Rota

- 8.149 Your Schedule will confirm whether you are on an IRC Rota to deliver advice and assistance by attending at a Detained Duty Advice Scheme at a designated IRC or as part of the DAC scheme at a designated IRC.
- 8.150 If you have Schedule Authorisation to deliver Contract Work under an IRC Rota you must:
- (a) deliver that Contract Work which shall include providing advice at all IRC Rota slots you are allocated; and
 - (b) if, for whatever reason, you are unable to meet your obligations under an IRC Rota, you must inform us immediately.
- 8.150A Failure to comply with Paragraph 8.150(a) may result in the imposition of Sanctions pursuant to Clause 24 including but not limited to Sanction 1 suspending or restricting your participation on IRC Rotas. For the avoidance of doubt, obligations under Paragraphs 8.150(a) and (b) are separate and compliance with 8.50(b) does not in itself mean a Sanction will not be imposed in respect of a breach of Paragraph 8.150(a) where this is considered reasonable.
- 8.151 You must ensure you have sufficient numbers of Caseworkers available to meet your IRC Rota obligations under your Schedule.
- 8.152 The IRC Rota will operate during Business Hours from Monday through to Friday inclusive and will exclude any Bank and Public Holidays and pursuant to Paragraph 8.151 you must ensure that you have sufficient numbers of Caseworkers available to meet your IRC obligations when the IRC rota is in operation.

- 8.153 You must be contactable during Business Hours (including via telephone, email and any other method we may reasonably require).

The Detained Duty Advice Scheme

- 8.154 We will periodically issue (providing at least one month's notice) IRC rota allocations which will set out the number (and if applicable the dates) of IRC Rota days during which you must deliver the Detained Duty Advice Scheme services at the designated IRC(s) throughout the Schedule period.
- 8.154A Not used.
- 8.154B Subject to Paragraph 8.154C, you may deliver the Detained Duty Advice Scheme surgeries remotely.
- 8.154C We may rescind the authorisation to deliver Detained Duty Advice Scheme surgeries remotely pursuant to Paragraph 8.154B by providing a minimum of one month's notice.
- 8.155 Due to the unknown demand from individuals at IRCs, we may vary the frequency of days on which you must attend the IRC.
- 8.156 On the Business Day immediately preceding a scheduled Detained Duty Advice Scheme IRC Rota day, the IRC will provide you with information as to the:
- number of Clients requiring Detained Duty Advice Scheme services;
 - time and date of the Detained Duty Advice Scheme surgery slots;
 - location; and
 - details of Clients you are required to see at each Detained Duty Advice Scheme surgery including any requirement for interpreters.
- 8.157 You must provide a maximum of 30 minutes advice to a Client at a Detained Duty Advice Scheme surgery without reference to the Client's financial eligibility.
- 8.158 The purpose of the advice session is to ascertain the basic facts of the Matter and to make a decision as to whether the Matter requires further investigation or whether further action can be taken e.g. advice regarding an Illegal Migration Act Removal Notice or other issue.
- 8.159 When attending a Client, the Caseworker must always advise the Client in relation to Temporary Admission and Bail (including advising where a Bail application to the First Tier Tribunal cannot be made where the Client has been issued with an Illegal Migration Act Removal Notice) and record the outcome of this advice on the file.
- 8.160 On the conclusion of the Client's 30 minute advice session you must make a determination as to whether the Client qualifies for civil legal aid services in accordance with Legal Aid Legislation and any Authorisation made under it to ascertain whether you are able to continue to advise the Client under Controlled Work in accordance with this Contract.

- 8.161 You must record the time spent with each Client at a Detained Duty Advice Scheme surgery on the Contract Report Form specified by us.
- 8.161A Where you are aware you will not have capacity to advise one or more Clients following the 30 minute advice session you must inform us of this issue as a minimum at least 3 Business Days prior to the Detained Duty Advice Scheme surgery. When considering your capacity you must assume that 10 Clients per day you are scheduled to attend at a Detained Duty Advice Scheme surgery may require further civil legal aid services following the advice session. I
- 8.162 You must ensure the Client is given adequate information in a written format at the end of the Detained Duty Advice Scheme surgery whether or not the matter requires further investigation. This information should sufficiently address the outcome of the Detained Duty Advice Scheme surgery with details of the name of the Caseworker who has advised the Client.

Capacity Notification & Referral

- 8.162A The provisions in Paragraph 8.162B and 8.162C shall only apply where we have notified you of the same.
- 8.162B Where, pursuant to Paragraph 8.160, you determine that the Client qualifies for civil legal aid services in accordance with Legal Aid Legislation and any Authorisation made under it but do not have capacity to continue to advise that Client you must immediately inform us using the email address we shall provide for this purpose.
- 8.162C Where we notify you that another Provider has capacity to accept a referral you must provide relevant information by email to the Client and the alternative Provider including but not limited to:
- (a) the Client's details;
 - (b) completed Legal Aid Application Forms; and
 - (c) a summary of the information obtained etc during the advice session.

The DAC Scheme

Advanced Caseworker

- 8.163 If you have Schedule Authorisation to deliver a DAC Scheme you must throughout the Contract Period Employ an Advanced Caseworker who must be available on Standby Days, Attendance Days and as otherwise reasonably required to provide any support, advice and assistance required to any Senior Caseworkers advising a Client at a DAC Scheme at an IRC in accordance with your Rota obligations. Such person (or each such persons) must be either a sole principal, one of your employees or a director of or partner in or member of your organisation (where you are a company, partnership (other than an LLP) or LLP respectively) and must at all times during their working hours (except as required for the proper performance of their role (such as attending court and/or Clients)) work from one of or any combination of your Offices. If you cease to meet the requirements of this Paragraph 8.140 your Schedule Authorisation to deliver any such DAC Schemes will cease. Any breach of this Paragraph 8.140 shall be a Fundamental Breach.

Temporary Advanced Caseworker Absence

8.164 If an Advanced Caseworker is for any reason temporarily unavailable you may for a period of up to 6 weeks either:

- (a) nominate another experienced Senior Caseworker to provide support, advice and assistance required to any Senior Caseworkers; or
- (b) nominate an external Advanced Caseworker.

8.165 If you estimate that your Advanced Caseworker may be unavailable for more than 6 weeks, or following completion of the 6-week temporary period the Advanced Caseworker is not able to resume, you must immediately inform your Contract Manager who will decide at their reasonable discretion what you must do to comply with the Contract. This may include:

- (a) extending the use of your nominated experienced Senior Caseworker for a further limited period;
- (b) by written notice specifying that you must put in place another employed Advanced Accredited Caseworker by such period as the notice specifies; or
- (c) applying a Sanction.

Standby Days

8.166 Your Schedule will set out your allocated Rota slots on Standby Days on the DAC Scheme Rota throughout the Schedule period.

8.167 The Standby Day is the day you may be contacted by the UKVI regarding DAC and/or NSA Clients. Each Standby Day will commence at 9am and finish at 6pm.

8.168 On Standby Days you must have sufficient capacity to be contacted by the UKVI equal to the number of slots designated on your Schedule Authorisation.

8.169 When you are on Standby, the UKVI will notify you as soon as possible after the claim for asylum has been made that an individual requires legal advice. The UKVI will provide you with the following information:

- (a) details of the Client; and
 - (b) time, date and location of the relevant Substantive Interview.
- 8.170 You are then required on the Standby Day (and according to the Client's needs) to make initial contact with the Client and the IRC to ensure that all parties are aware of the referral and you must arrange with the Client and the IRC a date/time to attend to:
- (a) assess the Client's means in accordance with Legal Aid Legislation and any Authorisations made under it to ascertain whether you are able to advise the Client under Controlled Work in accordance with this Contract; and if necessary; and
 - (b) prepare the Client for the Attendance Day. This may include preparing any witness statements or completing any appropriate pro-forma asylum claim forms specified by the UKVI.

Attendance Day

- 8.171 The Attendance Day is the day your Senior Caseworker(s) (or Advanced Caseworker(s)) will be required to attend the IRC to assist your DAC or NSA Client at the Substantive Interview.
- 8.172 On the Attendance Day according to the Client's needs you are required to:
- (a) advise the Client prior to their Substantive Interview;
 - (b) attend (under Legal Help) at the Substantive Interview; and
- advise the Client after the decision has been served (which may be on a different day to the Attendance day).

Post Attendance Day

- 8.173 The IRC will notify you when a decision has been made on your DAC or NSA Client's application for asylum. Once you have received notification of the decision, you must then attend your DAC or NSA Client at the IRC, so that you can provide further advice.
- 8.174 In providing advice on the decision, you must advise on its effect and, if it is adverse, must advise on whether there are grounds for appeal. You must make a determination in accordance with your obligations under this Contract that the Client qualifies for civil legal services in relation to any such appeal before granting funding for any appeal or conducting any Contract Work in relation to it. CLR must not be granted if the sole reason is to preserve your DAC or NSA Client's right of appeal.
- 8.175 Where you have refused CLR for the appeal, but the Client still requires further advice (e.g. in relation to their continued detention) you may continue to provide advice provided that you have made a determination that the Client qualifies for civil legal services.

- 8.176 Where you have refused CLR in relation to the appeal, you must provide the Client with a CW4 and confirm in writing on the file whether or not they wish to appeal to the Independent Funding Adjudicator. If they wish to appeal to the Independent Funding Adjudicator you must assist them in the completion of the CW4 unless they decline that assistance and the CW4 must be submitted to the LAA on their behalf by close of business on the next business day.

Client is Released From the IRC or Moved to Another Facility

- 8.177 Where you have been delivering Contract Work to a Client under this Part and your Client is either released from the IRC or moved to another detention facility (including a prison), then you may) continue to provide advice.
- 8.178 Where a Client has been released from detention or moves from the IRC, before you commence further Contract Work you should decide whether it is in the best interests of the Client to refer them to a more local Provider or to continue to represent them.
