Answer to a nullity application

To be completed by the court

Name of applicant

Name of respondent

Notes to respondent

- The parties are called applicant and respondent and the document starting the court proceedings is called an application.
- This form should be completed if you wish to dispute the nullity application (for a nullity of marriage order or nullity order) issued by your spouse/civil partner.
- There is a court fee for making this application. You can find the current fee in leaflet EX50 Civil and Family Court Fees which can be downloaded from: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/court-and-tribunal-forms> If you cannot afford to pay a court fee, you may be eligible for a fee remission or a reduced fee. The form EX160 Apply for help with fees and the EX160A guidance booklet gives you further information - <https://www.gov.uk/get-help-with-court-fees>
- You can apply for a divorce/dissolution/(judicial) separation or an annulment against your spouse or civil partner and to do so you should complete your own application. There are guidance notes within the D8N form to help you complete your nullity application. If you require any further assistance with this form please seek legal advice. The court fee for this application is separate and in addition to the fee for filing this answer.
- If there is not enough room on the form, you may continue on a separate sheet. Please put the applicant's name, your name and the number of the Part to which the information relates, at the head of any continuation sheet.
