For test administration

Key stage 2 English grammar, punctuation and spelling test

The key stage 2 English grammar, punctuation and spelling test consists of 2 papers. The papers must be administered in order. Pupils may have a break between the papers.

Paper 1: questions

The following information explains how to administer the modified large print (MLP) version of the key stage 2 English grammar, punctuation and spelling test Paper 1: questions. Modified test administration guidance is available at www.gov.uk/sta. If you have any questions, you should check with your headteacher or key stage 2 test co-ordinator before you administer the test.

Please follow these instructions correctly to ensure the test is properly administered. Failure to administer the test correctly could result in a maladministration investigation.

Format	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Paper 1: questions consists of a single question paper.● Pupils will have 45 minutes, plus up to 100% additional time, to complete the test paper.● Changes have been made to the layout of some parts of the standard test paper to create the MLP version.● You must not refer to the standard test questions when administering this test.
Equipment	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Each pupil will need the equipment specified below:<ul style="list-style-type: none">- a dark pencil or blue or black pen.● Rubbers are allowed, but please encourage pupils to cross out answers they wish to change instead of rubbing them out.● Pupils may use the following, if this is normal classroom practice:<ul style="list-style-type: none">- technical or electronic vision aids, including low-vision aids such as closed-circuit television or OCR scanners- highlighter pens.● Pupils are not allowed:<ul style="list-style-type: none">- a dictionary or thesaurus- electronic spell checkers- bilingual word lists or electronic translators.
Assistance	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● You must ensure that nothing you say or do during the test could be interpreted as giving pupils an advantage, for example, indicating that an answer is correct or incorrect, or suggesting the pupil look at an answer again.● Administrators should ensure that pupils are able to locate all answer spaces correctly.● If a pupil asks a question about test content, you may explain or rephrase a question provided you do not explain any subject-specific terminology. If any other word in a question is unfamiliar to pupils, you may explain it, or show them objects or pictures to help them understand. For example, if a question asks to 'insert a pair of commas', 'insert' may be explained, but not 'commas'.● You must not give alternative explanations, for example, explain 'inverted commas' as 'speech marks', or name punctuation.● The Notes for readers in the English grammar, punctuation and spelling test¹ gives examples of how to read particular types of question in Paper 1.● The examples below illustrate how to deal with some common situations. Question: I don't understand the question. Answer: Read the question again and underline key words that tell you what to do. Question: What does 'adverb' mean? Answer: I can't tell you, but think hard and try to remember. We can talk about it after the test.

Guidance for specific questions	No additional guidance is needed to administer the MLP version of Paper 1: questions.
Before the test begins	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review the list of pupils with particular individual needs, for example, pupils who need a rest break, a scribe or a transcript made at the end of the test. Ensure you know how to administer any access arrangements correctly. Please refer to the key stage 2 access arrangements guidance. It is important that the pupils' names on their tests match the names on the test attendance register. Check with your test co-ordinator whether any pupil in your group is known by a different name in school, or has changed their name since pupil registration. This is so you can ensure the pupil writes the correct name on their test paper. Write the school's name and DfE number on a board that is visible to all pupils. Leave space on the board to write the start and finish times of the test.
What to do at the start of the test	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Check that seating is appropriately spaced and that no pupil can see another pupil's answer booklet. Check that pupils do not have mobile phones or other disruptive items. Check that pupils do not have any materials or equipment that may give them extra help. Ensure each pupil who needs it has one MLP copy of Paper 1: questions. Write the start and finish times on a board so that all pupils can see them.
How to introduce the test	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> It is important to brief pupils fully at the start of each test. Use this script to introduce Paper 1: questions. This is the key stage 2 English grammar, punctuation and spelling test Paper 1: questions. You should have Paper 1: questions in front of you. You will need a blue or black pen or dark pencil. Write your name, date of birth, school name and DfE number on the front of your test paper. [If any pupil's name differs from the name provided during pupil registration, instruct the pupil to write both names on the paper.] Open your test paper to page 2. I will read the instructions to you. Questions and answers You have 45 minutes, plus your additional time allowance, to complete this test. There are different types of question for you to answer in different ways. The space for your answer shows you what type of answer is needed. Multiple-choice answers For some questions, you do not need to do any writing. Read the instructions carefully so that you know how to answer each question. Short answers Some questions are followed by a line or a box. This shows that you need to write a word, a few words or a sentence. Marks Each question has one mark. You should work through the booklet until you are asked to stop. Work as quickly and as carefully as you can. If you finish before the end, go back and check your work.

This section continues on the next page

How to introduce the test (continued)	You should try to answer all of the questions. If you can't answer a question, move on to the next one and return to it later if you have time. Pay particular attention to any instructions within test questions. If you want to change your answer, put a line through the response you don't want the marker to read. If you have to use a rubber, make sure you rub out your answer completely before writing a new one. If you have any questions during the test, you should put your hand up and wait for someone to come over to you. Remember, I can't help you to answer any of the test questions. You must not talk to each other. Are there any questions you want to ask me now? I will tell you when you have 5 minutes left. I will tell you when the test is over and to stop writing. You may now start the test.
How to deal with issues during the test	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● It is impossible to plan for every scenario. Whatever action you take, pupil safety must always be your first consideration. ● In the following circumstances, you will need to stop the test either for an individual pupil, group of pupils or for the whole cohort: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - test papers are incorrectly collated or the print is illegible - an incorrect test has been administered - a fire alarm goes off - a pupil is unwell - a pupil needs to leave the room - a pupil is caught cheating. ● If you need to stop the test: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - make a note of the time - make sure pupils are kept under test conditions and that they are supervised - if pupils have to leave the room, ensure they do not talk about the test - speak to your test co-ordinator or a senior member of staff for advice about what to do next - consider contacting the national curriculum assessments helpline on 0300 303 3013 for further advice. ● You should brief your headteacher on how the incident was dealt with once the test is over.
What to do at the end of the test	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● If you need to make a transcript of a test script, complete it with the individual pupil at the end of the test, under test conditions. Particular care should be taken to ensure accurate transcriptions are made and the pupil's answers, including spelling, are not corrected or amended. ● Ensure you inform your senior member of staff/test co-ordinator if you have made a transcript, or if a pupil has used a scribe, word processor or other electronic or technical device. This is so they can complete the appropriate online notification. ● Ensure you have collected every test script, including any unused test material. Return them immediately to the senior member of staff who is responsible for collating the tests. ● Do not look at, annotate or review pupils' answers in any way (unless it is necessary to make a transcript). If you amend or tamper with pupils' answers, it will be considered maladministration and results may be annulled. ● Do not keep or photocopy test scripts for any reason. ● All test materials, including any unused test papers, must be stored securely until Friday 23 May.
