Our clients

As a non-ministerial department, we exist to provide actuarial advice and analysis, supporting Government objectives and delivering for citizens.

Our remit covers advice and support to national government, devolved administrations and local authorities.

In addition, to ensure broader success of UK policy, we advise both arm's length bodies and other public institutions operating both domestically and internationally.

As a non-profit making centre of actuarial advice and analysis, we have an obligation to our current and potential clients to ensure that they can easily source our services when required, and that these are provided in the most cost-effective manner.

HM Treasury

Through advice on policy, GAD play a key role in supporting HM Treasury's remit of effective stewardship of government finances

UK Spending Departments

Spending departments (eg Department for Work and Pensions, Department for Education etc) require GAD's services on the design and rollout of their policies including fiscal risk planning

Devolved and local administrations

Devolved and local administrations face similar challenges to UK government, but often have more limited resources and solutions available

Wider public sector

Significant public liabilities (such as clinical negligence) are placed within special purpose arm's length bodies. In addition, national and international entities require expert advice on financial risk

What we offer – your career in GAD

In GAD you can grow your career, building new areas of expertise, undertaking greater levels of responsibility and expanding the impact you make on the mission of the UK Government.

Increased responsibility is recognised through grade-based promotions through our actuary bands, summary below and more detail on the next couple of pages. Progression beyond band 4 would usually be to a strategic leadership role within a team.

| Band 1 | Band 2 | Band 3 | Band 4 |

What we offer – your career in GAD

We are recruiting for actuaries at bands 1 to 2. Below explains more about the expectations at different bands, with other bands included so that you can see how responsibilities are shared. How you are assessed during the interview process will determine which band you are offered.

Band 1 actuaries are typically recently qualified actuaries, or qualified actuaries who are new to pensions work, who support more senior colleagues on the production of actuarial advice. They would also be expected to assist with the development of trainee actuaries and other more junior colleagues.

Band 2 actuaries would typically have more experience than Band 1 actuaries and would lead on certain projects and client interactions on our smaller clients and would work with more senior colleagues on our larger clients and projects. They would also be expected to assist with the development of more junior colleagues and support on the team's business development objectives.

What we offer – your career in GAD

Band 3 actuaries would be expected to take responsibility for leading on larger pieces of work and on medium sized clients, and coming up with solutions to non-standard requests. They would report to more senior colleagues and be involved in developing more junior colleagues. They are also expected to contribute to growing our portfolio of work and looking for opportunities for where GAD can add value.

Band 4 actuaries at GAD are one level below a strategic team leadership role. Actuaries at this grade would be expected to lead on one of the team's major clients with little oversight from a more senior colleague. As well as leading on the work, this also involves representing GAD and supporting our clients at external meetings with a diverse group of stakeholders. At this level they would also be expected to support senior management in the operation of the team and develop more junior colleagues and play an important role in meeting the team's Business Development objectives.

Annual revenue for each of our clients ranges from around £50k to £2m, depending on size and complexity, with the public service pension schemes being some of the largest and most high profile in the country.

What we offer – care and support

Beyond the opportunity to work in a unique area and make a difference to the UK, we offer a generous package of benefits

Flexi-time contracts – ensuring that you can claim hours back as holiday

Hybrid working – to build connections and share expertise, everyone spends 60% of their time at our offices, but you have control over how you achieve this

Access to the generous defined benefit Civil Service pension scheme

Family-friendly policies including nine-months fully paid maternity/adoption/shared parental leave, and paid paternity and special leave, subject to eligibility criteria

25 days annual leave per year, increasing to 30 days after 5 years' service (pro rata for part time staff)

Generous on-going training and development support, including 10 days of training each year

Access to employee assistance programmes and occupational health support

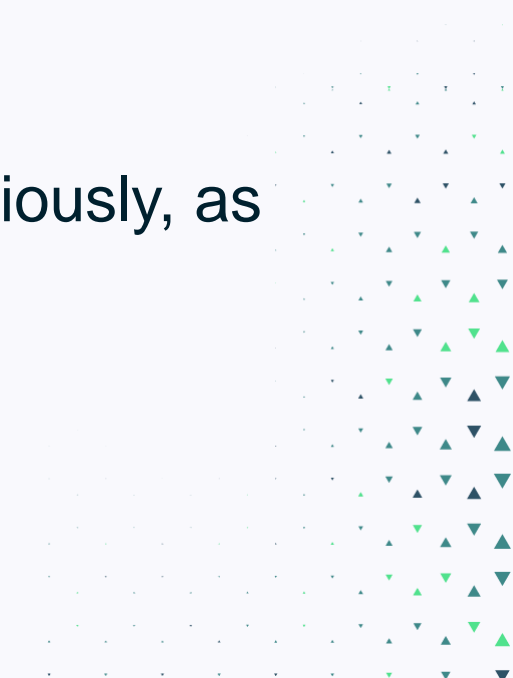

Other benefits including salary advances for travel, a cycle-to-work scheme, special leave for public duties and volunteering, as well as a staff benefits platform

Who should apply?

We want you to apply, our success thrives on the synthesis of a diverse range of thoughts and views.

There is no typical actuary in government, and GAD prides itself on having a welcoming and inclusive work culture.

As part of the public service, we take our obligations to equality seriously, as set out in our equality objectives for 2021-25.

Who are we looking for?

We want people who can

- Build lasting connections with our clients, understand their needs and how actuarial advice can support them.
- Provide clear and impactful advice to a range of different stakeholders across the public sector
- Proactively seek out new ways for actuarial advice to make a difference in UK government
- Design and efficiently manage the delivery of complex analysis and advice to time and budget
- Coach and develop others in the department

Assessment process

We have designed our assessment process to let your talent and expertise shine, as well as for you to get to know a bit more about GAD

Civil Service Recruitment

Our vacancies are assessed using Success Profiles. Subsequent references to technical expertise, experience, strengths and behaviours relate to specific items in the Success Profile Framework.

The Civil Service Code sets out the standards of behaviour expected of civil servants.

We recruit by merit on the basis of fair and open competition, as outlined in the Civil Service Commission's recruitment principles.

The Civil Service embraces diversity and promotes equal opportunities. As such, we run a Disability Confident Scheme (DCS) for candidates with disabilities who meet the minimum selection criteria.

Application

To apply please follow the links here, provide contact details, your CV and a short statement on how your experience relates to your desired role.

Please also confirm whether you wish to apply under our Disability Confident Scheme.

We will consider the information set out in your CV and your statement to assess,

- Whether you meet the minimum professional criteria of Fellowship membership of the IFoA (or other international equivalent)
- Your technical knowledge of the actuarial concepts required for your chosen role
- Your experience as a consulting actuary

Interview

If you meet the criteria assessed at the application stage you will be invited to interview. These will typically be conducted at one of GAD's offices.

In advance, we will ask you to confirm any reasonable adjustments you may require at the interview.

The interview will seek to assess through competency and other forms of questions,

- Your behaviours in respect of working together, seeing the big picture, and delivering at pace.
- Your experience in respect of being decisive, adaptable and analytical
- Your technical expertise of the areas of advice covered by the team you are applying for.

Presentation

As part of the interview, you will be asked to role play as a GAD consulting actuary. You will be given the topic a number of days in advance of the assessment.

This stage of the assessment will involve typically 5-10 minutes of you talking around the topic with the remainder of the time spent in dialogue with the panel.

Through the presentation stage we will seek to assess,

- Your behaviours in respect of seeing the bigger picture, and communicating and influencing.
- Your experience in respect of being an explainer, confident and authentic.

Note that we are not looking for technical accuracy at this stage.

Job Offer

Following your assessment we will get back to you as soon as we have reached a decision. In cases where there are a large number of highly talented candidates this can take a week or two.

If you are successful, we will offer you a role and feedback on the assessment.

If you did not meet the criteria, we will let you know and provide feedback on the assessment.

If you met the criteria but did not score as highly as other successful candidates, we will provide feedback and place you on a reserve list. If a similar role opens up within 12 months of your assessment, we will contact you to offer a position.

For successful candidates we will organise an informal conversation with a senior member of your new team who will give you the chance to ask more detailed questions about the role.

Apply Now!

This role is open for applications until Midnight on Sunday 15th June 2025. If you have any queries, please contact our Recruitment team on recruitment@gad.gov.uk

Please submit all applications through Civil Service Jobs, we look forward to hearing from you soon!

Further information

If you feel at any time your application has not been treated in accordance with the values in the Civil Service Code and/or if you feel the recruitment has been conducted in such a way that conflicts with the Civil Service Commissioner's Recruitment Principles, you may make a complaint, by contacting Human Resources at human.resources@gad.gov.uk in the first instance. If you are not satisfied with the response you receive, you can contact the Civil Service Commissioners using the link below.
