Freedom of Information: Suspended Employees

Thank you for your email of 20 February 2025 to the Trade Remedies Authority (TRA) in which you requested the following information:

1. The number of employees currently suspended on full pay within your agency/department.
2. The total duration (in days) of each of these suspensions.
3. The estimated total cost to the public purse for these suspensions.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act'), you have the right to:

- know whether we hold the information you require
- be provided with that information (subject to any exemptions under the Act which may apply).

I can confirm that there are currently no employees suspended on full pay at the TRA.

Appeals procedure

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original request and should be addressed to Knowledge and Information Management:
