

Catchment Sensitive Farming Advice Request Form

Catchment Sensitive Farming (CSF) offers advice and training to help farmers produce food in a way that protects their local water, air and soil.

This form requires requesting advice from CSF. Once you have completed the form, send it to your local CSF team at csfengland.org/contact.

Applicant details

Contact name

Date you filled in the form

Address and postcode

Telephone number

Email

Farm business name

Single Business Identifier (SBI) number and/or Country Parish Holding (CPH) number:

Tell us about your farm?

You must provide a description of your farm including its size and the type of enterprise.

Advice details

Why are you asking for advice?

Describe the current issues your farm business is facing related to water, air and soil.

Have you been recommended to request advice from CSF by the Environment Agency?

Yes No

What advice would you like from CSF?

Tick all the relevant options.

Soil and nutrient management (including slurry and manures)

Ammonia reduction

Farm infrastructure and machinery

Pesticide management

Water resources and flood mitigation

Agents' details

Only fill this section if it is applicable.

Agent's name

Agent's email address

Agent's telephone number

Further information

Is there anything else it would be useful for us to know?

You could include descriptions and consider attaching relevant maps or photographs.

For more information about the advice CSF can offer visit csfengland.org

To attend a free CSF event or speak to your local adviser at an agricultural show, see what's happening near you at csfengland.org/events

For more information about how we handle your data visit gov.uk

Catchment Sensitive Farming (CSF) is led by Natural England in partnership with Defra, the Environment Agency and the Forestry Commission.

June 2025