I would like the following details about your current arrangements for:

- The contract reference number
- The total value of the contract, including any permitted extensions
- The contract end date and any extension period that may be used
- A brief description of the service or goods provided by each supplier

If no formal contract is currently in place for any of these items, please provide for the most recent complete financial year:

- a) The supplier name or names, Companies House registration number where available, and website address where available.
- b) The total spend in pounds sterling.
- c) A brief description of the items purchased.
- d) The purchasing route used, for example purchase card, purchase order or framework call off.

CNC Response:

The CNC does not hold any contracts for the above. All ID/warrant cards are printed inhouse using a printer that we own. We buy all consumables needed ie cards etc by raising a PO, this is all under the Vetting Department cost centre, there is not a separate one for them due to the minimal cost.

Context:

The Civil Nuclear Constabulary is a specialist armed police service dedicated to the civil nuclear industry, with Operational Policing Units based at 10 civil nuclear sites in England and Scotland and over 1600 police officers and staff. The Constabulary headquarters is at Culham in Oxfordshire. The civil nuclear industry forms part of the UK's critical national infrastructure and the role of the Constabulary contributes to the overall framework of national security.

The purpose of the Constabulary is to protect licensed civil nuclear sites and to safeguard nuclear material in transit. The Constabulary works in partnership with the appropriate Home Office Police Force or Police Scotland at each site. Policing services required at each site are agreed with nuclear operators in accordance with the Nuclear Industries Security Regulations 2003 and ratified by the UK regulator, the Office for Nuclear Regulation (ONR). Armed policing services are required at most civil nuclear sites in the United Kingdom. The majority of officers in the Constabulary are Authorised Firearms Officers.

The Constabulary is recognised by the National Police Chiefs' Council (NPCC) and the Association of Chief Police Officers in Scotland (ACPOS). Through the National Coordinated Policing Protocol, the Constabulary has established memorandums of understanding with the local police forces at all 10 Operational Policing Units. Mutual support and assistance enable the Constabulary to maintain focus on its core role.
