Dear [REDACTED]

RE: Request for Information – RFI4896

Thank you for your request for information which was processed in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

You requested the following information:

Please could you advise the average period anticipated between the granting of funds after planning permission has been approved on the Affordable Homes programme?

Response

We can confirm that we do hold some of the requested information. The average time between achieving planning consent and the date the scheme is approved is approximately 8 to 9 months. Please note that we have based this figure on new build schemes, and it is an average. Some schemes may take less or more time to achieve the same results. The average provided depends on the providers providing planning dates which relate to the original planning date for the past schemes.

Right to Appeal

If you are not happy with the information that has been provided or the way in which your request has been handled, you may request an internal review. You can request an internal review by writing to Homes England via the details below, quoting the reference number at the top of this letter.

Your request for review must be made in writing, explain why you wish to appeal, and be received within 40 working days of the date of this response. Failure to meet this criteria may lead to your request being refused.

Upon receipt, your request for review will be passed to an independent party not involved in your original request. We aim to issue a response within 20 working days.

You may also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) however, the Information Commissioner does usually expect the internal review procedure to be exhausted in the first instance.
