Dear [REDACTED]

RE: Request for Information – RFI4760

Thank you for your request for information which was processed in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

You requested the following information:

I am looking for some information relating to a Site in Hull – Burma Drive.

It is my belief that Homes and Communities Agency (HCA) were involved in the works relating to the preparation of Burma drives Industrial area, having involvement in the drainage design which provides attenuation tanks.

The area manager involved at the time was [REDACTED]. The Drainage contractors I believe was Atkins.

I am trying to get information relating to the current drainage provisions on the site for an ongoing application. I have a snip of a drawing... but not the original.

Response

We can confirm that we do hold the requested information. Please see Annex A attached to this email for a full-sized map of the drainage provisions.

Section 40 – Personal information

We have redacted some information on the grounds that it constitutes third party personal data and therefore engages section 40(2) of the FOIA.

To disclose personal data, such as names, contact details, addresses, email addresses and personal opinions could lead to the identification of third parties and would breach one or more of the data protection principles.

Section 40 is an absolute exemption which means that we do not need to consider the public interest in disclosure. Once it is established that the information is personal data of a third party and release would breach one or more of the data protection principles, then the exemption is engaged.

The full text in the legislation can be found on the following link:

Advice and Assistance

In compliance with the Section 45 Code of Practice (Paragraph 2.10) and to offer advice and assistance under section 16 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, we can advise that these plans are not 'as built' plans. We do not hold the 'as built' plans and you may wish to contact Atkins to obtain a copy.

Right to Appeal

If you are not happy with the information that has been provided or the way in which your request has been handled, you may request an internal review. You can request an internal review by writing to Homes England via the details below, quoting the reference number at the top of this letter.
