For information on how HM Land Registry processes your personal information, see our Personal Information Charter.

Insert address(es) including postcode (if any) of the applicant. Give full name(s). Complete as appropriate where the lender is a company. Also, for an overseas company, unless an arrangement with HM Land Registry exists, lodge a certified copy of the constitution in English or Welsh, or other evidence permitted by rule 183 of the Land Registration Rules 2003. A lender must give its legal name exactly as registered in Companies House or where the lender is a foreign company within the meaning of the Companies Act 2006 the full legal name as registered in its state of incorporation. Place 'X' in the box(es) if appropriate. See practice guide 30: approval of mortgage documentation for a definition of a standard restriction. Each lender may give up to three addresses for service, one of which must be a postal address whether or not in the UK (including the postcode, if any). The others can be any combination of a postal address, a UK DX box number or an email address. Once the charge has been approved, we will only enter the address(es) for service as given on this form on registration of the charge. Any other addresses given on an application to register the approved charge will be ignored. See the undertaking in panel 7.	1	Name of applicant:

WARNING

If you dishonestly enter information or make a statement that you know is, or might be, untrue or misleading, and intend by doing so to make a gain for yourself or another person, or to cause loss or the risk of loss to another person, you may commit the offence of fraud under section 1 of the Fraud Act 2006, the maximum penalty for which is 10 years' imprisonment or an unlimited fine, or both.

Failure to complete this form with proper care may result in a loss of protection under the Land Registration Act 2002 if, as a result, a mistake is made in the register.

Under section 66 of the Land Registration Act 2002 most documents (including this form) kept by the registrar relating to an application to the registrar or referred to in the register are open to public inspection and copying. If you believe a document contains prejudicial information, you may apply for that part of the document to be made exempt using Form EX1, under rule 136 of the Land Registration Rules 2003.
