WHY YOU MIGHT LIKE TO BUY

Maximum cash discounts are £16,000 - £38,000. The level of the maximum discount available depends on where you live. For details, please see www.gov.uk/right-to-buy-buying-your-council-home/discounts. Applications for the Right to Buy received by social landlords before 21 November 2024 from eligible tenants will be eligible for the previous discounts, of up to a maximum of £102,400 across England, or £136,400 in London boroughs.

Your home could be a valuable asset for you and your family and an investment for the future. This could be your first important step to owning your own home.

Buying your home is a big decision for you and your family. The responsibilities, costs and financial commitments that ownership brings need to be thought about carefully, so you should always seek impartial advice before buying.

This booklet sets out the main information you need to get you started, the questions you should ask, how to take the next steps, and useful contacts for free, unbiased advice and information.

DO YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO BUY?

YOU DON'T HAVE TO DO IT ALONE

You can make a joint application. So if you're eligible, you might be able to buy your home with:

- Someone who shares your tenancy.
- Your spouse or civil partner.
- Up to 3 family members who've lived with you for the past 12 months. They don't have to be on your tenancy agreement, but it must be their main home.

YOU COULD BE ELIGIBLE FOR A RIGHT TO BUY DISCOUNT IF:

You are a council tenant

If you were living in your home when it was transferred from the council to another landlord, like a housing association, you may have a 'Preserved' Right to Buy.

OR

You were a council tenant when your home was transferred to your current landlord

If so, you could be eligible to buy your home in the same way as if you were still a council tenant. If not, you may still be able to buy your home at a discount.

You have been a public sector tenant for at least 3 years

If you have been a tenant for 3 or more years (it doesn't have to be 3 years in a row) you could qualify to buy the home you currently live in. It must be your only or main home.

You don't live in sheltered housing or other housing particularly suitable for elderly or disabled people

There are some homes that you may not be able to buy under the scheme.

OR

Your home is not due to be demolished

Check this out with your landlord if you are not sure.

You don't have any legal problems with debt

For example, if you are an un-discharged bankrupt, have a bankruptcy petition pending against you, or have obtained a debt relief order.

You don't have any outstanding possession orders

You cannot buy your home if a court has made a possession order which says that you must leave your home (usually made because you have not paid your rent, or have breached the terms of your tenancy agreement in some other way).

If you can answer 'YES' to these statements, you are probably eligible but your landlord will need to confirm this.

YOU MAY QUALIFY

FOR AN EVEN BIGGER DISCOUNT

WHAT DISCOUNT COULD YOU GET?

Discount levels for houses and flats start at 3 years of eligible tenancy, increasing to a maximum of 70% of the property value depending on how long you've been a tenant, or are capped at the cash maximum if that is reached first. You may wish to check out local estate agents and property websites to get a rough idea of what your property could be worth.

You might get a slightly lower discount if you previously purchased another home through Right to Buy, or if your landlord has spent some money on improving your home.

If you have made improvements to your home yourself, make sure you inform your landlord (as part of the application form) so that they can reflect this in the valuation.

HOME OWNERSHIP

COMES A STEP CLOSER

For most people, buying a home is the biggest investment they will ever make. It's an exciting time, but there is a lot to think about.

You need to look at all the costs involved (not just mortgage payments) and work out if you can afford it not only now, but in the future too, when your circumstances may change. And bear in mind that house prices could go down as well as up.

It's a good idea to look into the costs of home ownership as early as possible, before you get too far into the Right to Buy process. You are responsible for how you finance your Right to Buy – your landlord can't arrange this for you.

This section provides an overview of the costs as well as where you can get more information and free, unbiased advice. There's a checklist on pages 14 and 15 that can help get you started.

CAN YOU AFFORD IT?

MORTGAGE OR LOAN?

You are likely to need a loan or mortgage, which you would pay back with interest, usually in monthly payments. The interest rate will be in the mortgage deal that you agree with your lender (usually a bank or building society) and can change over time.

Remember that interest rates could go up or down in the future, which will mean the money you will pay back each month could change significantly.

HOW MUCH CAN YOU BORROW?

This depends on your personal circumstances, such as your income, your outgoings, whether you're buying alone or with someone else.

You agree with the lender how long you need the mortgage for and whether you can afford the monthly payments.

When deciding the period your mortgage will be paid over, remember that when you retire this could affect how much you can afford for mortgage payments.

The type of property you live in can also affect whether you can get a mortgage – for example, some lenders won't lend money on a flat in a high-rise block.

Even if you don't need a mortgage yourself, it's worth checking whether lenders are willing to give mortgages on the type of property you are buying. You may want to sell in the future to someone who does need a mortgage.

THINGS TO CONSIDER BEFORE YOU BUY

FINDING THE BEST OPTION FOR YOU

There are different mortgage options available from different lenders. For example, some will treat your Right to Buy discount as your deposit, while others will not.

It's worth shopping around to compare the deals available to you, and get impartial advice before making up your mind. The Money and Pensions Service is a good place to start – they provide free, unbiased advice.

You could take a look at comparison sites and online calculators to help you get an idea of costs. You could also talk to a bank, building society, mortgage broker or an independent financial adviser (IFA). Some brokers and advisers charge for their services. So ask before appointing them, and whoever you speak to, make sure they are regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA).

Many lenders will also charge a fee to set up a loan or mortgage. Make sure that you understand the terms and all the costs involved before you commit to anything.

Check out carefully any person or company offering to help you buy your home as some of them may charge a fee.

The company may be offering a deal which is far better for them than for you.

OTHER COSTS OF BUYING A HOME

There are some one-off costs when buying your home, as well as ongoing costs. Costs below are correct at time of publication and are only provided as a guide. See our 'useful contacts' on page 20 for more information.

→ ONE-OFF COSTS

MORTGAGE ADVICE

You may choose to get advice from an independent financial adviser or mortgage broker.

Costs vary and may be a set fee or percentage of the loan.

SURVEY

You may want to get an independent survey done. This will highlight any problems (such as repairs) you'll need to know about before you buy.

Costs can vary depending on the type of survey. Typically they start at around £300 for a basic valuation survey.

LEGAL FEES

You will need to hire a solicitor or other licensed conveyancer for the legal aspects of your purchase (searches, land registry fees, deeds, etc.). Costs can vary, typically £500-£750.

STAMP DUTY

This is a one-off tax you pay when you buy a property. The amount is based on a percentage of the purchase price and varies according to the property value. Stamp duty does not apply to properties under a certain value.

→ ONGOING COSTS

When you buy your home, you take on some ongoing costs and responsibilities that you might not have as a tenant.

MAINTENANCE AND REPAIRS

As a homeowner, your landlord will no longer organise repairs to your home. You will need to organise and pay for these yourself. This could include electrical and plumbing jobs through to more expensive repairs such as a new boiler or repairing your roof.

It's a good idea to set aside some money each month for maintenance and repairs. Be aware that you may need permission for some changes (such as planning permission for an extension) so check before you get started.

SERVICE CHARGES WHEN BUYING A FLAT OR LEASEHOLD HOUSE

Flats (and some houses) are leasehold properties. When you buy a leasehold property, the freeholder (your current landlord) will still be responsible for maintaining the building and the surrounding area (communal areas) – as defined in your lease.

As a leaseholder, you will pay your share of these costs – known as the 'service charge'. When major repairs and maintenance are needed in your block or estate, you'll have to pay a share of the costs too.

This can be several thousand pounds if, for example, a new lift or new windows are needed.

You are protected from unexpected costs for the first 5 years. When you buy, your landlord must give you an estimate of your service charges for this period (see step 4 on page 17). They can only increase this amount to take account of inflation – even if something unexpected needs doing.

After 5 years, the service charge can rise to reflect actual costs. Your landlord must consult with you before starting any major works. Before you buy, ask about any long-term plans for repairs, works or improvements to your block of flats or surrounding area.

HOME IMPROVEMENTS FOR LEASEHOLDERS

You may need permission from the freeholder (your current landlord) to make certain changes to your property. These should be set out in your lease – check it carefully with your solicitor before you sign it.

The same rules apply to all leases (whether it's a council or a private property).

WHERE TO GET HELP IF YOU'RE THINKING OF BUYING A LEASEHOLD PROPERTY

It's worth talking to local leaseholders to learn about their experience of service charges in your area.

Free information and advice is available from the Leasehold Advisory Service. You'll find their contact details on page 20.

INSURANCE

You may already have insurance for the contents of your home. As a homeowner you will also need to insure the building (if you are a leaseholder you will pay your share of this cost).

You may also want (or be required by your lender) to get income protection or life insurance in case anything happens to you while you're paying off your mortgage or loan.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

As a homeowner you will not be eligible for housing benefit.

Your home could be at risk if you aren't able to keep up your mortgage or loan payments.

CHECKLIST

- ☒ Check if you are buying a leasehold property and look into the costs.
- ☒ Work out your monthly outgoings. Don't forget to include all your living costs, such as food, clothes etc.
- ☒ Set aside some money each month for maintenance and repairs.
- ☒ Think about what you'll do if things change in the future.
- ☒ Fill out the table on pages 14 and 15.

SELLING OR TRANSFERRING YOUR HOME LATER

Once you buy your home through the Right to Buy, you can sell it whenever you want. But there are some things you need to know:

IF YOU SELL WITHIN 10 YEARS:

you first have to ask your former landlord if they want to buy your home back at market value. If they say 'no' then you can sell it on the open market.

In addition:

IF YOU SELL WITHIN 5 YEARS:

you will usually have to repay some or all of the Right to Buy discount – the amount depends on the price you sell at and how long you have been the owner.

This also applies if you agree to transfer ownership to somebody else.

IF YOU LIVE IN A RURAL AREA:

you may only be allowed to sell your home to somebody who lives or works locally. Ask your landlord about this.

WORKING OUT THE COSTS

Being a homeowner can bring many benefits, but it also brings important responsibilities. Use this section to help you work out the costs, benefits and drawbacks of home ownership for you. Fill out the table below to help you work out your current monthly outgoings as a tenant, and compare that with the costs of being a homeowner. When working out what you can afford, it's important to put in all of your outgoings, such as food, clothes, utility bills, phone, car, etc.

Compare your outgoings to your household income.

RIGHT TO BUY –

STEP BY STEP GUIDE

If you're eligible for the Right to Buy discount you could be on your way to owning your home. Here are the six key steps you need to follow.

CHECK ELIGIBILITY, WORK OUT THE COSTS AND GET ADVICE

Once you've checked your eligibility (shown in steps 3 and 4), it's a good idea to look into the costs of home ownership as early as possible, so you have an idea of what it might cost and what you can afford before you get too far into the process.

Go to page 14 to get started.

You may also want to speak to a Right to Buy Adviser for free, impartial advice. See page 20 for details.

FILL IN AN APPLICATION FORM

Ask your landlord for an application form (RTB1) or download one from our website at:

[www.gov.uk/government/publications/
notice-claiming-the-right-to-buy--2](http://www.gov.uk/government/publications/notice-claiming-the-right-to-buy--2)

Fill it in and send it to your landlord.*

See pages 18 and 19 for the information you will need to have to hand before you fill in your application form*

CONFIRM ELIGIBILITY

Your landlord has up to 4 weeks to reply confirming whether you have the Right to Buy (this is 8 weeks if you have been with your current landlord for less than 3 years).

RECEIVE AN OFFER

Your landlord then has up to 8 weeks to send you an offer notice for a house or up to 12 weeks for a flat. This offer notice, which is known as a S125 notice, sets out:

- their valuation of your property*, your discount, the price you'll pay
- any structural problems they know about
- any terms and conditions

For leasehold properties only, the S125 offer notice will also include an estimate of the service charges that you will need to pay over the next 5 years (see page 12).

OVER TO YOU – MORTGAGE, SURVEY ... AND GET ADVICE

You have up to 12 weeks to accept your landlord's offer. It's during this time that you'll need to arrange a mortgage or loan, get a survey and hire a solicitor for conveyancing, etc.

Get independent financial and legal advice (if you haven't already) and check you understand all the costs before you sign anything.

COMPLETE THE PURCHASE

Once you're happy with your landlord's terms and have arranged how you will pay for your home, carry on and complete your purchase.

It's usually during this time that you pay your stamp duty, etc., finalise the paperwork and sign the contract.

You are now a homeowner!

What to do if your landlord doesn't meet the timescales

Buying a home can be a long process and can take several months. Your landlord must process your Right to Buy application within certain timescales (shown in step 4). If they don't meet these timescales, or delay without reason, you could get a reduction in the sale price. Find out more about delay notices on www.gov.uk/right-to-buy-buying-your-council-home/delays

If you're not happy with the valuation you can appeal.*

GUIDE TO COMPLETING YOUR APPLICATION FORM (RTB1)

If you think you are eligible and feel ready to apply for the Right to Buy, you need to fill out the RTB1 application form.

You can create an application online at www.gov.uk/right-to-buy-buying-your-council-home/applying on the 'Completing your application form' page, or get one from your landlord. Make sure you have the following information to hand before you fill out your application form. Our Right to Buy advisers can help you complete the form. See page 20 for their contact details.

Part A

THE PROPERTY

The full address of the property you want to buy

Remember to include the area where you live and the full postcode.

The name of your landlord

For example, Basildon Council.

Part B

THE TENANT(S) AND FAMILY MEMBER(S)

The full names of everyone listed on your tenancy agreement (or 'rent book')

For example RICK SMITH would probably be RICHARD JAMES SMITH. Remember to tick the boxes to say whether the property is each tenant's only or principal home, and if they wish to buy. On joint tenancies, not all tenants may wish to buy.

The full names of family members who wish to share the Right to Buy with you

They must be a spouse, civil partner or wider family member, and be over 18. Wider family members must have lived in the property as their only or main home for at least the last 12 months.

Part C

QUALIFICATION AND DISCOUNT

Details of your current and previous tenancies

You will need dates, names of tenants, addresses and names of landlords for your tenancies. This includes those of your spouse/civil partner, those of your former spouse/civil partner who you have separated from/divorced, or who has died, and parents who previously held the tenancy.

ONCE YOU'VE COMPLETED ALL SIX SECTIONS OF THE FORM AND SIGNED IT, SEND IT TO YOUR LANDLORD.

Part D

PREVIOUS DISCOUNT(S)

Details of any other properties you have bought under the Right to Buy scheme, or at a discount through any other government scheme (for example, Right to Acquire).

You do not need to give details of applications, only purchases.

You might get a slightly lower discount if you have purchased through any discounted government scheme on another home.

Include the full address of the property purchased.

Part E

TENANT IMPROVEMENTS

Details of any improvements you have made whilst living in the property

The improvements may have increased the value of the property. If you list them in your application, the value of the improvements will not be included in the valuation of the property so you don't pay twice.

Part F

SIGNATURES

Signatures of all tenants

Make sure all tenants sign in the correct place. The boxes on page 10 are for tenants who wish to buy. On page 11 the first set of boxes is for tenants who do not wish to share the Right to Buy. The second set of boxes on page 11 is for family members who are not tenants but want to share the Right to Buy.

5 QUESTIONS TO ASK YOURSELF BEFORE YOU BUY

Q DO I HAVE THE RIGHT TO BUY?

Before you start this process, use the checklist on page 5 to see if you might have the Right to Buy.

Q CAN I AFFORD IT?

Use the checklist on pages 14 and 15 to work out the costs, benefits and possible drawbacks of buying. It's worth doing this before you get too far into the process.

Q CAN I AFFORD IT IF THINGS CHANGE IN THE FUTURE?

Remember that your home could be at risk if you're not able to keep up your mortgage or loan payments. So work out your budget, don't over-extend yourself financially and make sure that you have some savings set aside for a rainy day.

Q WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS AND RISKS?

Owning a home can be a good investment for the future, and gives you more freedom to make your home your own. But make sure you've also considered the risks and responsibilities.

Q WHERE CAN I GET ADVICE?

See page 20 for contact details of organisations that can give free and unbiased advice on buying your home.

See reverse for useful contacts →

WHERE TO GET THE ADVICE YOU'LL NEED

USEFUL CONTACTS

Buying a home can be exciting, but there is a lot to think about. Your landlord can help you with part of the process, but you need to arrange other parts (such as finances) yourself.

The Government works with a number of organisations which provide free and unbiased advice and can help point you in the right direction.

To find out who your landlord is, look for contact details on a recent letter or newsletter.

MONEY ADVICE

The Money and Pensions Service is an independent organisation set up by the Government.

They provide free, impartial advice on a range of financial matters. This includes tips and tools to help you budget, choose a mortgage and work out whether you can afford monthly repayments.
