2.1 Corruption and money laundering

- (a) The OECD countries, including the United Kingdom, are committed to combating corruption, bribery and money laundering. The law in the UK has been strengthened in order to do so. UKEF draws the Applicant’s attention, in particular, to the applicable law on bribery and corruption contained in the Bribery Act 2010 and to the applicable law on money laundering contained in Part 7 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002. In particular, certain acts committed abroad now constitute criminal offences in the UK. The penalties for these offences include fines for corporates and imprisonment and fines for individuals.

- (b) The Modern Slavery Act 2015 (the “MSA”) is an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom (<https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2015/30/contents>). It is designed to combat modern slavery in the UK and consolidates previous offences relating to trafficking and slavery. The MSA also imposes reporting obligations on businesses that exceed a given annual turnover value and that carry out business in the UK. Guidance on the reporting obligations established by the MSA can be found at <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/publish-an-annual-modern-slavery-statement>.
