Dear Matthew,

Thank you very much for your email last week. I have been in contact with the client, and we are having new plans produced today. I will pass these on as soon as available.

I can also confirm that this extension of time is agreed so that the application may be reviewed in full.

Kind Regards,

Elliott Paddon

Dear Sir,

Following her site visit, the Inspector requests that you give consideration to the provision of a communal room for the students within the building. If you wish to submit amended plans, please do so by 10 October and also please agree to an extension of time on the application until 31 October. If nothing is received by 10 October, the Planning Inspectorate will proceed to determine the application.

Kind regards,

Matthew
