WHO CAN GET SUPPORT?

If you are a Chinese national who has returned, or will be returned from the United Kingdom, ISS-HK can help you rebuild your life in China.

This support is available for up to 12 months following your return to China.

HOW TO ACCESS SUPPORT?

You can contact the ISS-HK using the Contact information in China below.

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

The Home Office Returns Reintegration Programme assists the return and reintegration of people in the United Kingdom with no legal status or right to remain.

The programme offers a wide range of services, providing assistance on arrival and longer-term support for persons returning to China.

ABOUT ISS-HK

ISS-HK is committed to helping individuals and families successfully resettle in China.

Founded in 1924, the International Social Service (ISS) is an international NGO without political, racial, religious or nationality bias. As an integral part of the ISS worldwide network, ISS-HK works closely with other ISS units around the globe in providing inter-country social work and cross border social services to needed children and families between Hong Kong, Mainland China and across countries.
