Apply to the First-tier Tribunal to be released on immigration bail

Use this form to apply to be released on bail from a detention centre, immigration removal centre or prison.

You must be detained for immigration reasons. You cannot use this form if you are being detained for criminal reasons.

When to apply

If you were refused bail by the tribunal in the last 28 days, you will not get another hearing unless your circumstances have changed significantly. If you think there are significant changes to your circumstances since the tribunal refused your last bail application, you can tell us in Section 9 of this form.

If you have a removal date within 21 days of the bail hearing, the tribunal cannot grant bail unless the Home Office agrees.

For all other cases, the tribunal cannot grant bail until 8 days after you arrived in the UK.

If your application is refused, the tribunal will tell you why at the hearing and confirm the reason in writing.

How to submit your application

Find out where to send your application under 'What to do next' on the last page of this form. If you are a legal representative you need to use MyHMCTS to submit the bail application.

Guidance on completing this form

You can find notes to help you understand questions on the right side of the page.

Use another sheet of paper if there is not enough space for you to say everything. Add your name at the top of any additional pages.

Write clearly if you are completing this form by hand.

If you need help

Contact the First-tier Tribunal (Immigration and Asylum Chamber) if you have questions about your application or this form.

The tribunal cannot give you legal advice.

Section 9 – Reasons for your bail application

- 9.1 Give the reasons why you should be released on bail, giving as much information as possible.

Note for Section 9

Use another sheet of paper, or additional document if there is not enough space for you to say everything.

Add your name at the top of any additional pages.

You can send any additional evidence you have along with this form.

- 9.2 If you were refused bail by the tribunal in the last 28 days, you will not get another hearing unless your situation has changed significantly.

Tell us how your circumstances have changed since the tribunal refused your last bail application.

Section 10 – Electronic monitoring condition

- 10.1 The tribunal may decide to make a condition that requires you to carry a GPS tag. The tribunal must make this condition if you are facing deportation as a result of a criminal conviction.

If you think you should not have to carry a GPS tag, tell us your reasons below. The Home Office will review this before your bail hearing.

Section 11 – Future management of your case

- 11.1 If you are granted bail, the tribunal may transfer your case to the Home Office.

This means that all future decisions about your bail conditions and any changes to these conditions will be made by the Home Office, not the First-tier Tribunal.

If you do not think your case should be transferred to the Home Office, tell us your reasons why:

Section 12 – Support at your hearing

- 12.1 Will you or your financial condition supporter need an interpreter at the hearing?

Yes

Languages and dialects needed for you or your supporter:

No

- 12.2 Will you or your financial condition supporter need any support at the hearing?

Yes

Tell us what support you or your supporter need and why you need it

No

Note 12.2

Some people need support to access information and use our services, for example:

- access and mobility support if a hearing takes place in person
- help with communication, sight, hearing, speaking, or translation
- documents in alternative formats, colours and fonts

Before you apply

You must attach all the evidence that supports this application such as medical documents.

If you have another appeal and some of the appeal information is relevant to this bail application, you must provide the relevant information again with this bail application.

List all the evidence you are sending with this form:

What to do next

Email or post the completed and signed form and copies of any evidence to the appropriate First-tier Tribunal (Immigration and Asylum) hearing centre.

You can find the appropriate First-tier Tribunal (Immigration and Asylum) hearing centre by asking staff where you are being detained. It is normally the closest to your detention centre, immigration removal centre or prison.

Find contact details and information on courts and tribunals:

www.gov.uk/find-court-tribunal

If you are a legal representative

Legal representatives need to use MyHMCTS to submit the bail application:

<https://manage-case.platform.hmcts.net/>

Remote hearings

If you are represented

Please arrange for the financial condition supporter to provide their passport and supporting documents, such as bank statements to your legal representative so that copies can be uploaded to the case management system, MyHMCTS.

If you are not represented

Please ask your financial condition supporter to send a copy of their supporting documents, such as bank statements via email to the designated hearing centre with the case reference number, appellant name and the words “FCS evidence” in the subject line of the email.

Please advise your financial condition supporter that they will be required to show their passport to the camera at the remote hearing so that the judge can verify their identity.

Next steps

The First-tier Tribunal (Immigration and Asylum Chamber) will check this form and let you know if you need to provide any more information. If no further information is required, the tribunal will write to you or your representative (if you have one) to confirm the next steps.
