

Help for employers of mobilised reservists to apply for financial assistance and application form

Complete this form to claim financial assistance for each called out reservist during mobilisation. This form falls under the regulations Statutory Instrument (SI) 2005/859 and amendment SI 2015/460. It also includes a section to claim the Employer Incentive Payment as set out in SI 2015/2410.

Who can claim

- employers of mobilised reservists
- self-employed reservists
- reservists who are company directors or in partnership.

What you can claim

- the additional costs of replacing a reservist employee who has been mobilised
- employer incentive payments (for employers with a turnover of less than £25.9 million and fewer than 250 employees – see Section 9).

If you're an employer, you need a mobilisation letter before you fill in the form. If you don't have a letter, contact the relevant service point of contact (details on this form). The letter will include more details - however, for further information please visit <https://www.gov.uk/employee-reservist>.

When to apply

You can apply for financial assistance before the reservist reports to the Mobilisation Centre. - However, any determination or award will be made after the reservist has been accepted into service.

You can't claim later than 4 weeks after the last day of your reservist's last day of mobilised service. For training costs, see below. You don't have to claim for all costs at once. You can use this form to submit claims as they arise.

If you need advice or more time to complete the form, please contact the relevant Adjudication Officer.

How to complete this form

Fill it in, and email it, with any evidence required, to the relevant Adjudication Officer. They may request further information or documents in connection with your claim.

- fill in all of the 'claimant details' section.
- tick which aspects you intend to claim for in the 'details of claim' section
- click on the links in the 'details of claim' section or scroll through and complete the relevant claim section(s) using the tick and free text boxes
- complete, sign and date the claimant's declaration at Section 10.

You must notify the Adjudication Officer within 14 days if you realise you've made a mistake, or you need to change your claim.

Please include with the signed application any relevant supporting documents to demonstrate a cost:

- Invoice cost and evidence of payment- agency fees, advertising, specialist clothing, training costs
- Pay statements to show earnings of reservist as well as replacement
- Handover/takeover dates and programme and who completed the HO/TO and cost – pay statements
- Training – dates and programme undertaken both internally and externally to include cost
- Self-employed to include details of cost and payment.
