Name of benefit

Reference number

This is on any letters we have sent you about the benefit.

Part 5: How we pay you

You can choose how often you want us to pay your benefit.

How often do you want us to pay your benefit?

Every 2 weeks

Every 4 weeks

Every 13 weeks

We normally pay your money into an account.

Many banks and building societies will let you collect your money at the post office.

We will tell you when we will make the first payment and how much it will be for. We will tell you if the amount we pay into the account is going to change.

Finding out how much we have paid into the account

You can check your payments on account statements. The statements may show your National Insurance (NI) number next to any payments we have made. If you think a payment is wrong, get in touch with the office that pays you straight away.

If we pay you too much money

If we pay you too much money we have the right to take back any money we pay that you are not entitled to. This may be because of the way the payment system works.

For example, you may give us some information which means you are entitled to less money. Sometimes we may not be able to change the amount we have already paid you. This means we will have paid you money that you are not entitled to.

We will contact you before we take back any money.

What to do now

- Tell us about the account you want to use on the next page. By giving us your account details you
 - agree that we will pay you into an account, and
 - understand what we have told you above in the section If we pay you too much money.
- If you are going to open an account, please tell us your account details as soon as you get them.
- If you do not have an account, please contact us and we will give you more information.

Fill in the rest of this form. You do not have to wait until you have opened an account or contacted us.

Part 5: How we pay you continued

About the account you want to use

- You can use an account in your name, or a joint account.
- You can use someone else's account if
 - the terms and conditions of their account allow this, and
 - they agree to let you use their account, and
 - you are sure they will use your money in the way you tell them.
- You can use a credit union account. You must tell us the credit union's account details. Your credit union will be able to help you with this.
- If you are an appointee or a legal representative acting on behalf of the claimant, the account should be in your name only.

Please tell us your account details below.

It is very important you fill in all the boxes correctly, including the building society roll or reference number, if you have one. If you tell us the wrong account details your payment may be delayed or you may lose money.

You can find the account details on your chequebook or bank statements. If you do not know the account details, ask the bank or building society.

Name of the account holder

Please write the name of the account holder exactly as it is shown on the chequebook or statement.

Full name of bank or building society

Sort code

Please tell us all 6 numbers, for example 12-34-56.

Account number

Most account numbers are 8 numbers long. If your account number has fewer than 10 numbers, please fill in the numbers from the left.

Building society roll or reference number

If you are using a building society account you may need to tell us a roll or reference number. This may be made up of letters and numbers, and may be up to 18 characters long. If you are not sure if the account has a roll or reference number, ask the building society.

You may get other benefits and entitlements we do not pay into an account. If you want us to pay them into the account above, please tick the box.

Part 6: Other information

Please read carefully the notes that came with this form. Use this space to tell us anything else you think we might need to know.

If there is not enough space, please use a separate sheet of paper. Make sure you put your full name and National Insurance (NI) number on each sheet of paper, and sign and date each sheet that you use.

Part 7: Declaration

I declare that I am a widow, widower or surviving civil partner of the person named in Part 2 of this form.

I understand that if I give false or incomplete information or fail to report all changes in my circumstances which may affect my entitlement promptly, I may be liable to prosecution or face a financial penalty.

I declare that I have read and understand the notes which came with this form and that I must telephone or write to the office that pays my benefit to report any change in my circumstances.

I declare that the information in my claim is complete and correct.

Part 8: What to do now

- 1 Check that you have answered all the questions that apply to you and your spouse or civil partner.
- 2 Check that you have shown us all the documents we have asked for, or are sending them with this form.

Use the checklist below:

- the Certificate of Registration of Death
- your birth certificate and marriage or civil partnership certificate
- a birth certificate for each child.

- 3 Check that you have signed this form.
- 4 Send us your claim form as soon as possible.

You must send us your claim form within 3 months of the death of your spouse or civil partner. Failure to do so may affect your entitlement to benefit.

You can claim a Bereavement Payment for up to 12 months after the death of your spouse or civil partner.

Return this claim form to Dover Benefit Centre, Post Handling Site B, Wolverhampton WV99 1LA or your nearest Jobcentre Plus office.

You can contact the Dover Bereavement Benefits office on 0800 151 2012.

Calls to 0800 numbers are free from landlines or mobiles.

Part 9: What happens next

- If you are entitled to a Bereavement Payment, we will make payment into your account as soon as we can. If you are not entitled to this benefit, we will write to tell you why.
- It will take a little longer to work out if you are entitled to any other benefit. But we will write to tell you about this as soon as we can.
- Benefit you can get because of this claim can be paid more quickly if you answer all the questions on this form that apply to you and your spouse or civil partner. If you cannot do this, get in touch with us. But benefit you can get because of this claim may be delayed.

Part 10: About Child Tax Credit

Child Tax Credit is a payment to support families with children. It can be claimed by those responsible for one or more child or young person.

Child Tax Credit

- is claimed from HM Revenue & Customs
- is paid in addition to Child Benefit
- can provide income for families with children, whether in or out of work
- is normally paid to the main carer.

To find out more about Child Tax Credit visit www.gov.uk/child-tax-credits

You can claim Child Tax Credit online too.

You can also phone HM Revenue & Customs about Child Tax Credit on 0345 300 3900.

Lines are open 8am to 8pm Monday to Friday, and 8am to 4pm on Saturday. Lines are closed Sundays, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Year's Day and Easter Sunday.
