DECISION

The Tribunal determines a rent of £825 per calendar month with effect from 27th July 2025.

SUMMARY REASONS

Background

1. On 9th June 2025 the Landlord's Agent served a notice under Section 13(2) of the Housing Act 1988 which proposed a new rent of £875 per month in place of the existing rent of £740 per month to take effect from 27th July 2025.
2. On 20th July 2025 under Section 13(4)(a) of the Housing Act 1988, the Tenant's Representative referred the Landlord's notice proposing a new rent to the Tribunal for determination of a market rent. The Tenant's referral was received by the Tribunal on 21st July 2025.

Inspection

3. The Tribunal did not inspect the property but considered this case based on the papers provided by the parties and information freely available on the internet.

Evidence

4. The Tribunal has considered the written submissions provided by the Tenant and the Landlord.

Determination and Valuation

5. Having given consideration to the comparable evidence provided by the parties and of its own expert, general knowledge of rental values in the area, the Tribunal determines that the open market rent for the property in good tenantable condition would be £875 per calendar month/week.
6. Such a tenancy would normally include white goods, carpets, curtains/blinds and associated fittings to all be provided by the Landlord.
7. In this case the property is not in such condition. Accordingly, the Tribunal determined that the 'open market rent' should be reduced by £50 per month to reflect the general wants of repair and condition.
8. The Tribunal therefore decided that the rent at which the subject property might reasonably be expected to be let in the open market by a willing Landlord under the terms of this assured tenancy was £825 per month.
9. The Tenant made no representation that the starting date for the new rent specified in the Landlord's notice would cause the Tenant undue hardship.
10. Accordingly, the Tribunal directed that the new rent of £825 per month should take effect from 27th July 2025, this being the date specified in the notice.
